Call to Prayer

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

We would want to be fountains of hope for others, God of glory, but people find only hardened hearts.

We would like to be transformed people, but our stubborn pride prevents us from bending a knee to you.

We long to stand with those who are in need,
but our selfishness keeps our backs rigid with judgment.

Forgive us, God who came down to us.

Humble us, that we might be true servants to the broken and lost.

(Prayer continues next page.)

*Please rise in body or in spirit.

(Prayer continues in unison.)

Split open our frozen hearts, that compassion might flow freely to those who are hurting.
Fill our minds with the presence of your Spirit, that we might learn how to follow Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, into that kingdom of grace and hope.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (From A Declaration of Faith)

Mindy Douglas

We believe that at the Lord’s supper the community of believers is renewed by the memory of Christ’s life and death, by his real presence in the power of the Holy Spirit,
and by the promise of his coming again.
Christ makes himself known to us in the breaking of bread.
He offers us his body broken for our sake
and his blood shed for the forgiveness of our sins.
We accept his promises and gifts
and depend on his life to sustain ours.
In turn we offer ourselves in thanksgiving
to the risen Lord who has conquered death.
So we celebrate his victory here and now
and anticipate the joyous feast in his coming kingdom.
Reunited around one loaf and cup,
we receive strength and courage to continue our pilgrimage with God in the world.

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Mindy Douglas

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: It is right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise, loving God, Creator and Sustainer of all life.

You planted the first fields –
wheat, barley, rice, and maize and made us in your image to care for your creation.

You fed your people in the wilderness with manna from heaven leading them to a land of milk and honey.

Leader: When human greed trampled the poor you spoke through the prophets, calling us to worship you with justice and peace.
 Then, in the fullness of time, you sent Jesus Christ, the living bread, to lift up the oppressed and lowly and fill the hungry with good things.
 Therefore, we praise you,
 joining the faithful who hunger and thirst for righteousness and singing the hymn of the whole creation:

All (sung):

Sanctus (Pavlechko)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Leader: We praise you, most holy God,
 for Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh.
 He taught us to share the abundance of your love,
 feeding the multitude,
 eating with sinners and strangers,
 offering his own body to save us,
 and pouring out his life for the world.

Leader: Remembering all that you have done in Jesus Christ,
we offer our lives to you with great thanksgiving
as we share this feast of love and grace.

All (sung):

Christ has died; Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.

Leader: Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these your gifts of bread and wine that the bread we break and the cup we bless may be the communion of the body and blood of Christ.
By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
and one with all who share this meal,
a great multitude from every nation.

(Prayers of thanksgiving and intercession)

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honor and glory are yours, almighty God,
forever and ever.

All (sung):

A - men, a - men, a - men.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (in Spanish)

Julio Manceras

As we participate in the unity of World Communion Sunday, let us hear The Lord's Prayer spoken in Spanish.

Leader: Padre nuestro que estás en los cielos, santificado sea tu nombre.
Venga tu reino.
Hágase tu voluntad, como en el cielo, así también en la tierra.
El pan nuestro de cada día, dánoslo hoy.
Y perdónanos nuestras deudas
como también perdonamos a nuestros deudores.
Y no nos dejes caer en tentación,
mas líbranos del mal;
porque tuyo es el reino,
el poder, y la gloria,
por todos los siglos.

All: Amén.

The Welcome Table

Matthew Corl

Welcome! Let us know you have joined us for worship by scanning this QR code.

First Presbyterian Church welcomes all who worship here. We honor and celebrate the human diversity and unity that God gives us in Christ. We welcome individuals of every age, race, nationality, gender, sexual orientation, economic circumstance, and ability to participate fully in the life of the church. So that you may know who is sitting nearby, please sign the Ritual of Friendship pad, pass it along the pew, and then return it to the starting point, noting the names of those sitting near you.

The flowers in the sanctuary are given by Torrell and Laura Armstrong to the glory of God and in memory of Laura's father, Tom Clift.

We are grateful to Lesley Curtis and Shelley Turkington (soloists) and Anna Blair (percussion) for providing music for today's worship.

The Lord's Prayer when Holy Communion is celebrated: From the beginning, one of the hallmarks of Reformed worship has been liturgy in the vernacular—in the common language of the people of God. Many, however, continue to use the language of another era (the Tudor dynasty) when praying the prayer Jesus taught. We hope that, by using this ecumenical version, new generations will learn and understand this prayer in a fresh way. To mark World Communion Sunday, it will be prayed aloud in Spanish today by Deacon Julio Manceras.

Hearing Assistance Receivers are available from the ushers. Before you leave the sanctuary, please turn off the receiver and place it in the specially marked receptacle by the door or return it to the audio/video console at the rear of the sanctuary. Receivers are sanitized after each use.

Childcare: A staffed nursery and children's playroom are available on the second floor of the education building during worship. Activity bags are available in the foyer for children. Please return bags to the foyer at the end of worship.

Restroom locations: to the left and right as you exit the rear of the sanctuary; on the second floor of the education building; and on the first and second floors of the church house. There is an infant changing table in the restroom area located to the left as you exit the rear of the sanctuary.

Sources for today's worship texts: Presbyterian Church of Colombia, Lectionary Liturgies, Feasting on the Word, and Book of Common Worship (2018).

These Days daily devotional booklets for October – December 2023 are available from the table in the church foyer. Get your free copy while supplies last.

Copies of recent sermons are available from the table in the foyer. Please feel free to take a copy for yourself and to share copies with our homebound members and friends of the church.

Today's bulletin cover was created by Isa Cummings for World Communion Sunday.

Philippians in Six Sessions

Paul wrote the book of Philippians from a prison cell as a letter to a community he loved. This book is full of themes of joy and community life together. While we will focus on the study of scripture, this group will also be a way to deepen our spiritual lives and our fellowship with each other. The class began September 24 and continues in the basement parlor at 9:45 a.m. each Sunday for six sessions. For more information, please contact Susan Dunlap, sjd4@duke.edu.

On October 15, we will be viewing a film from PCUSA, "Genesis of Exodus," which provides an intensive look at why people in Central and South America are leaving to make a perilous journey to the U.S.

Pauli Murray Video Showings

Pauli Murray is the unofficial saint of Durham, and we all now have the special opportunity to view the award-winning film “My Name is Pauli Murray” at the homes of FPC members on five different dates in October.

The 91-minute film won the Peabody Award in 2022 and has been described by critics as a film that “educates and uplifts in equal measure while paying stirring tribute to a largely unsung -- yet hugely important -- individual.” It depicts Pauli’s life and struggles and influence on Ruth Bader Ginsburg and Thurgood Marshall.

This October, four members of FPC’s Racial Equity Task Force are opening their homes and inviting you to share this movie that is only available on Amazon Prime.

The schedule for the showings of the movie is below.

Join us Saturday, October 14 at 10:00 a.m. on the grounds of Elizabeth Street UMC (1209 N. Elizabeth Street) for a ritual of sacred attention to these 50 loved ones. For the 31st time, we offer this Annual Vigil Against Violence as a space to unite in public mourning for the inequitable human toll of our violence.
