

The following persons were received into membership
by the FPC Session on February 16, 2020.

Rachel Bethune

Address: 1019 Laurel Hill Rd,
Chapel Hill, NC 27517

Birthday: March 25

Phone: 919-370-4016

Email: rlfarrell@hotmail.com

Rachel Bethune is a military kid who has grown up all over the US and in Germany. She attended school at UNC Chapel Hill and adopted Chapel Hill as her hometown. Her career is focused on healthcare data and analytics. Rachel and her husband Alec (who grew up in the church) met in Durham and regularly attend FPC with their two kids Colin and Juliet. Rachel's special interests are hiking and yoga. She is excited to be joining the church officially. Rachel has joined by letter of transfer.

Stewart and Karen Cameron

Address: 2 Justin Court, Durham, NC 27705

Birthday: February 22 (Karen)

Phone: 971-225-8562 Karen/503-396-7346 Stewart

Email: KarenCameron @ protonmail.com

stewartcameron@protonmail.com

Stewart Cameron is originally from Glasgow, Scotland. He met his wife, Karen, while working in Bermuda, and they decided to make the United States their home. Stewart practices massage therapy locally and also teaches massage at Durham Technical Community College. He loves singing in all forms whether in the church choir, home or pub. Stewart has joined by letter of transfer. Karen Cameron is a native

Texan. She is married to Stewart who she met in Bermuda while serving with the United States Navy. Karen works as the records manager of Person County Child Protective Services. She enjoys reading and discussing different ideas, philosophy and culture, and adores her two small dogs Finnegan and Ciara. Karen has joined by letter of transfer.

Kelli Hunnicutt

Address: 2403 Glendale Avenue, Durham, NC 27704

Birthday: October 4

Phone: 828-779-1320

Email: kelli.hunnicutt@gmail.com

Kelli Hunnicutt is an artist, mother and peace activist. She has been in the area a few years after living in both Atlanta and Asheville. Trained as an artist at UNC, art has always been an important and influential part of her life. She began a business designing and making decorative pillows a few years ago and presently works at this business from home. She has previously served as a lay leader in church, and as a leader and active member of various peace and social justice organizations. She is currently a board member of a national women's peace organization, Women's Action for New Directions, also known as WAND. Her proudest accomplishment, by far, is raising two wonderful and socially conscious young women. Kelli has joined by letter of transfer