Opening Act: Tonya Murray

Some highlights of her comedy career, so far, have been opening sold out shows for Jeff Ross, and Jim Norton.

Tonya became a fan of Joan Rivers at a young age...even sporting her bumper sticker "Can we talk?" on her bedroom door. She endured years of being yelled at...by her parents for telling all of their personal business to relatives and in school for talking during class. Finally Tonya started realizing the path she was on...she could tell all of her personal business...to strangers...and not get in trouble!!

After a trip to Chicago in October of 2011 with 6 other girls, to celebrate a friend's 40th birthday, this cinched it...She had to try stand-up comedy! So 2012 was the start of a new journey for Tonya with stand-up comedy. Since then she's performed all over the Midwest!

Headliner: Kevin Zeoli

Kevin Zeoli lives by the belief that if you can't laugh at yourself, stare harder in the mirror. His high-energy humor will lead you on a highway of hilarity guaranteed to leave you laughing, as he serves up his views on everything from life with a child to the current state of the country. Adding visuals, voices and stories, you're sure to have a side splitting time.
