NSF Faculty Early Career Development Program (CAREER) Proposal Writing Workshop Series

The UNM Faculty Research Development Office and the Office of the Vice President for Research present a participatory workshop series to help you develop a compelling narrative to highlight your research and its educational and social impacts. Attendance at the complete series is encouraged but not required.

The CAREER program is the National Science Foundation's (NSF) most prestigious award in support of early-career faculty who have the potential to serve as academic role models in research and education.

BUILD A FIRM FOUNDATION FOR A LIFETIME OF LEADERSHIP IN INTEGRATING EDUCATION AND RESEARCH

Interested? Sign up here by Monday, March 21 goto.unm.edu/career-workshop

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS (DATES TBA)

Early April: Broader Impacts	How does your research address fundamental social problems from a local to a global scale?
Late April/Early May: Education Plan and Research/Education Integration	How do you plan to incorporate teaching into your research practice? How can you bring them together so that they bolster one another?
Late May/Early June: Research Activities and Prior Support	How can you frame your research and its significance for non-expert readers?
Middle/Late June: Peer Review Session	Submit your Education Plan and Broader Impacts sections in advance to give and receive comments from other workshop participants.
