

6th Grade Literature Weekly Outlook

Day of the Week	Lesson	Homework
Monday	Describe the difference of related words	IXL (Language Arts) T1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reach a smartscore of 80
Tuesday	Settings Can Change Over Time, Not Just Physically, but Psychologically- minilesson posted	Continue to read for 30-40 minutes a day and use Reader's Notebooks (or digital notebooks) to practice these skills taught in minilessons. Ways to Question the Text about Psychological Setting Changes <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. At different moments in the story, has the setting changed for the character? 2. How does my character fit in this place? 3. Is this a safe place? 4. Is it becoming something else?
Wednesday	Positive and Negative Connotation	IXL (Language Arts) T2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Reach a smartscore of 80
Thursday	Investigate how the psychology of a place shifts, and how those shifts affect characters	Investigate how the shifts in setting affect the character: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What shifts have taken place in your setting? 2. How has the mood changed? 3. How is this affecting your character? I will be checking reading logs at the end of the week.
Friday		All homework for the week due by 3pm <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● IXL T1 ● IXL T2 ● Psychological Setting Changes ● Shifts in setting affect the character

--	--	-----------