

B'NAI TORAH CONGREGATION

cordially invites you to join us for an open program with

Lesley Sachs

Director of Women of the Wall (WOW)

The Western Wall at a Critical Moment

When Will the "Kotel Deal" Be Implemented?

Tuesday February 14th | 7:00 p.m.

WOW advocates for social and legal recognition of women's participation in public prayer at the Kotel. It is deeply involved in the conversations surrounding the plan for an egalitarian prayer space at the "southern wall".

Lesley Sachs is the 2014 recipient of the NCJW Jewel Bellush Outstanding Israeli Feminist award and was one of the founding members of "Isha L'isha – Haifa's Feminist Center" and worked for 10 years in the Israel Women's Network. Lesley served as executive director of the Israel Religious Action Center (IRAC), vice president of the World Union For Progressive Judaism and founding director of Project, Keshet Israel. She is currently working as the executive director of Women of the Wall. She served on the board of directors for the Jerusalem Women's Shelter, board of directors for the JNF-KKL and currently she is chair of the pre-army mechina Michmanim in Jaffa.

Co-sponsored by: Congregation B'nai Israel, Congregation Shaarei Kodesh, Temple Beth El of Boca Raton, and Temple Beth El of West Palm Beach

6261 SW 18th Street, Boca Raton, FL 33433 | (561) 392-8566 | www.btcboca.org

