FELUINE AND MALICK FALL

SAINT LOUIS, SENEGAL

MINISTRIES:

Girl's School in Saint Louis called Yoonu Njub Vocational School:

(Way of Righteousness) – It is a three-year vocational training school serving 100 girls per year.

- Location: The school is situated in Pikine, which is the poorest and most densely populated neighborhood in Saint-Louis.
- Core Mission: It helps young women and adolescent girls who face family conflict, poverty, or lack of access to mainstream public schools.
- Curriculum & Training: The school provides standard literacy education alongside specialized job training such as tailoring, restaurant cooking and computer literacy. This training is designed to empower young women to achieve financial independence and long-term economic transformation.
- Bible Study: The young women participate in a daily yearlong Bible study.

Talibe Ministry

- The Talibe ministry works with young boys who have been given to a Muslim leader for Koranic training. They are forced to beg for money, suffer abuse, have poor health, and go hunger.
- The ministry provides a weekly meal, minor health services, a shower, time to play, Bible stories, clean clothes and a chance to be a kid.

Media & Outreach

- Malick Fall operates a widely broadcasted Christian radio ministry in the region, targeting their local Wolof people group.
- Malick is recording the newly published Wolof Bible

Other Ministries

- Disciple Training Center being built to equip pastors in Senegal.
- Future dormitories for Christian University Students.
- Prison ministry outreach.
- Sustainable farming education
