

Diane Gilberte Hill

Artist Biography

Diane Gilberte Hill is a Mixed Media Artist who resides in Idaho Falls, Idaho. She specializes in Botanical Printmaking and Wildlife Painting. Nature and wildlife deeply inspire her work, which captures the delicate harmony between native fauna and flora.

Her formal art education began at Ricks College (now BYU), where she trained under the guidance of Oliver Parson and Richard Bird. She later transferred to BYU Provo, earning a BA Degree in Interior Environment (Interior Design), where she mastered perspective drawing and color theory—foundational elements that now enrich her fine art.

Recognized across the region, Diane received first and second place awards at competitive art shows in St. George, Utah, and Idaho Falls. Her distinctive pieces have been accepted into prestigious art exhibitions across Sun Valley, Jackson (WY), Salt Lake City, Logan, Bozeman (MT), and Boise.

In 2025, she held a milestone solo exhibition featuring 20 original paintings at the Eastern Idaho Art Museum, and she has continuously exhibited her artwork over the last three years at the Willard Gallery in Idaho Falls. She is currently serving as the prestigious Artist in Residence for the Idaho Conservation League (May 2026 – 2027).
