

➤ New Sections of OLLI courses for Winter 2017

Asheville's Doomed Duo: Scott and Zelda Fitzgerald

Mondays, 9-11 a.m.

January 9, 23, 30, February 6, 13, 20

Southeastern Europe: From the Fall of Constantinople to the Greek Debt Crisis

Fridays, 9-11 a.m.

January 13, 20, 27, February 3, 10, 17

Drawing Made Fun and Easy

Tuesdays, 9-11 a.m.

January 10, 17, 24, 31, February 7, 14

➤ Schedule Changes for Winter 2017

Build Your Own Theology

Course will start on January 18 and run for 6 sessions until February 22

Asheville's Doomed Duo: Scott and Zelda Fitzgerald, Section 1

Course will start on January 19 and run for 6 sessions until February 23

Science of Science Fiction

The course will not meet on January 26. Course is extended one week and ends on February 23.

Airplanes without Engines: Up, Up, and Away

Understanding the Lumbar Spine

These courses are cancelled.

Due to adverse weather, all classes were cancelled for Monday, January 9, 2017. The following classes have added a 'make-up' class at the end of their rotation for this cancelled session:

- Art & History of Renaissance Italy
- Good Science, Bad Science, Fun Science
- Understanding Your Pet's Health
- Why Was Lincoln Murdered?
- Tai Chi for Arthritis (11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.)
- Easy Steps to Creating Perspective in Art
- Genealogy Using FamilySearch
- Hebrew Prophets
- Hitting High Spots of Writing Fiction
- Science & Technology for Global Citizens
- Yoga for Your Health
- Dancers of the Golden Age of Hollywood
- Handmade Fabric Flowers
- Southeastern Europe: Fall of Constantinople to Greek Debt Crisis, Section I
- Introduction to LGBTQ Literature & Film