DEATH CAFE

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 30

AT OLLI - 5 TO 6:30

The background of the poster is a painting. On the left, a bird is shown in flight, its wings spread, as if it has just landed or is about to take flight. Below the bird is a potted plant with long, green leaves. In the center and right, a man and a woman are seated at a table, engaged in conversation. The woman is on the left, wearing a blue top, and the man is on the right, wearing a dark suit. The scene is lit with warm, indoor lighting, creating a calm and intimate atmosphere.

"Death Café" is an engaging gathering
a storytelling experience as a conversation. A conversation that too often alienates one in our death phobic culture. In recovering the ritual of Being with Death through personal storytelling of fears, loss and death,
a deepening ritual emerges and we
build a culture of dying wisely.
Join us at our next Death Cafe.
The new holy ground or common ground
the wonders of being with dying.
