

OLLI SUPPORT NEEDED TO PROVIDE MORE NUTRICIOUS FOOD FOR THE ASHEVILLE TERRACE APARTMENTS RESIDENTS

PROGRAM SPECIFICS:

- WHY IT MATTERS:
Dropping your change in the OLLI-MANNA-ATA change jar at the Reuter Café helps fight hunger among seniors in Asheville. Here's how: OLLI members are partnering with the residents of Asheville Terrace Apartments (ATA) and the MANNA Foodbank to improve the residents' access to healthy, nutritious food. Asheville Terrace Apartments, managed by the City of Asheville Housing Authority, provides safe, affordable housing to over 250 low-income residents, 90% of whom are over 62 years old and 10% of whom are handicapped.
- WHEN:
NOW! You can help support this effort by dropping your change into the OLLI-ATA-MANNA change jar that is now sitting near the check-out at the Reuter Café.
- YOUR COMMITMENT:
Your donations to the change jar greatly expand the range and quantity of food we can offer to our fellow seniors. a limited range of food (e.g. seasonally available fruits and vegetables) is available for free at MANNA, many other foods carry a small charge. Your change can make a big difference, so please drop it in the jar.

For Additional Information: contact Sarah Reincke at sarahreincke@gmail.com to find out how you can become involved in this very worthwhile and rewarding volunteer opportunity

For information on further ways to support this effort, please contact Suseela Steers, Asheville Terrace Apartments Food Program Coordinator, ssteers@live.com

Asheville Terrace Volunteers at a Recent Food Distribution

