

On Saturday, 20th May, Dr Lauren Hadden, AuD, of The Hearing Center, addressed the Chapter's regular meeting on the topic of 'Investigating Tinnitus.' This is such a neglected topic and so often people are told, even by well-intentioned physicians, that there is nothing to be done, that you just have to live with it. That is true only up to a point: you do have to live with it and there is no cure. But there is a lot of good help toward managing it. Here are links to a couple of webinars which you can access on the HLAA website, hearingloss.org. The links are:
