

ARPS Remote Learning Survey Summary, April 2020

What is the current grade level of your child?

205 responses

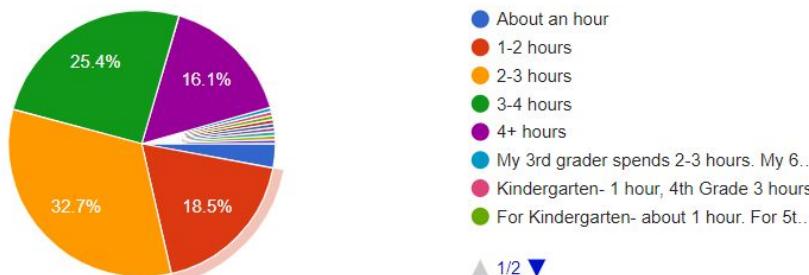

This survey represented about 44% of our student population

205 responses, representing approximately 211 students

How much time is your child spending each day on school work provided by your teacher?

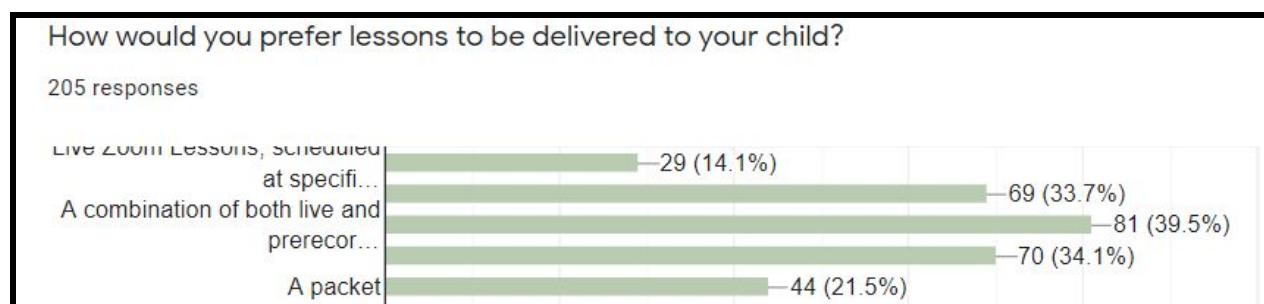

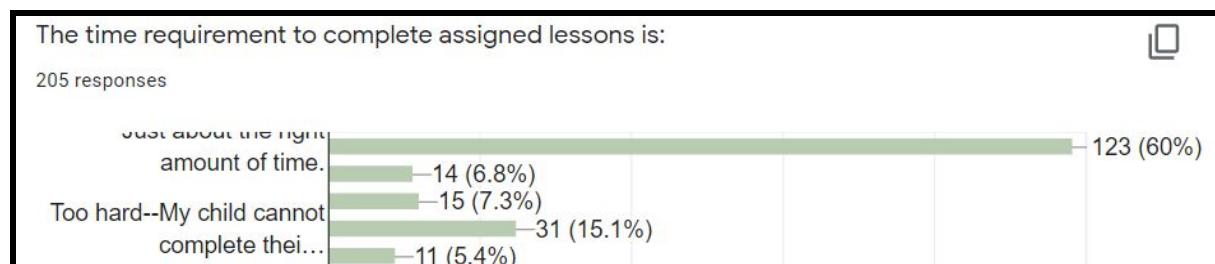

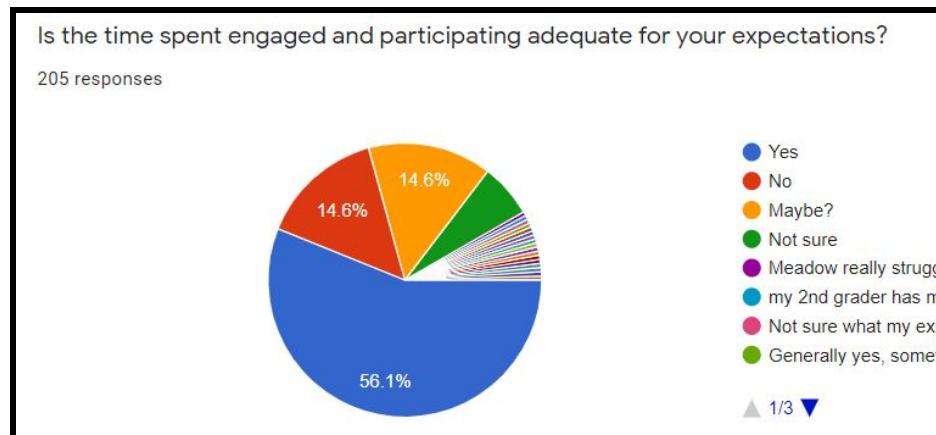

205 responses

Further breakdown by grade level “bands”

Grade Level Band	Responses	About an hour	1-2 hours	2-3 hours	3-4 hours	4+
PreK/PreSchool	8/44 (18%)	12.5	62.5	25	0	0
Kinder/1st	51/80 (64%)	7.8	35.3	23.5	23.5	5.9
2nd/3rd	63/120 (53%)	1.6	9.5	36.5	28.6	19.1
4th/5th	49/100 (49%)	0	11.3	35.8	22.6	22.6
6th-8th	45/ ()		3	18	12	10

- Green highlights where staff is aiming for time spent

Current Challenges for ARPS Families

- Student Focus (x28)
- Navigating multiple platforms and passwords (x12)
- Struggle with multiple grade levels (in one household)
- Student independence (x14)
- Parents working from home (34)
- Parents working full time (x11)
- Finding balance (x9)
- Sharing devices (x6)
- Concern of material retention
- Schedule/Balancing Zoom Meetings
- Not being able to immediately ask for support
- Missing the social interaction with teacher and classmates (x8)

Positives Communicated

- Well structured and organized digital learning environment with clear expectations (weekly checklists) (x42)
- Reasonable and consistent workload (x5)

- Zoom meetings and Flipgrid. (x32)
- Communication (websites, morning announcements) (x24)
- Variety of lesson delivery (pre-recorded, live, small group, worksheets, online systems) (x27)
- Supportive and responsive teachers (x34)
- Device Checkout (x1)
- Additional Learning Support (Enrichment, Extension, Intervention, and Counseling) (x7)
- I love how even though we are apart, I still feel our community spirit. ARPS really is a special community.
- Times like these validate that we've chosen the right school. A true sense of caring comes through clearly from all the staff at Aspen Ridge. I know all the teachers, principal, asst principal and support staff are giving it their all. Thank you!
- Being able to have snack whenever we want and doing work with my dog :) LOL
- My child says sleeping in and no uniforms. LOL :)
- Arps should be proud of being far ahead of the curve.