

National Teen Driver Safety Week Kickoff Webinar

Presented by The National Transportation Safety Board,
Impact Teen Drivers, and SADD

Monday, October 19, 2020 | 3PM- 4:30PM ET

Calling all educators, health professionals, and first responders! Join us as we kick off National Teen Driver Safety Week virtually! Through Quick Shot presentations and breakout sessions, we will explore teen safe driving resources and evidence-based strategies that can be used in your schools and communities to reduce preventable deaths and serious injuries caused by reckless and distracted driving choices.

Learn strategies for:

- Reaching underserved populations
- Utilizing evidence-based programs
- Engaging students/student leaders
- Turning tragedy into a teachable moment

And more!

Impact
Teen Drivers

The #1 killer of teens in America is car crashes. 75% of fatal teen crashes involve reckless and distracted driving. Bringing an end to this public health crisis will require changing the driving culture to one that is distraction-free.

Attendees will:

- Learn about the magnitude of the problems associated with novice driver crashes, injuries, and fatalities
- Explore how to engage young people with evidence-based strategies and resources to help keep themselves and others safe on our roadways
- Gain insight on how to tailor outreach to special populations including Spanish speaking families, underserved communities, rural areas, foster families, and those in the court system.

Breakout Sessions

- Trauma Injury Prevention and Health Professionals
- First Responders and Judicial System
- Student Advocates and Leaders
- Educators and Teachers
- Affected Family Members and Advocates

The first 500 registered attendees will receive free access to a teen safe driving virtual resource goody bag.
