

We Switched

Howard Greenfield and Jack Keller; adapted by Brooks Jones for the Rev. Eric Zile's installation as priest at Trinity Episcopal Church, 16 October 2019.

We switched, we switched, Our church rector, we switched.
He'll preach, And tell; He knows the Bible so well.
Before we knew what he was doing, He looked into our eyes.
That homily that he'd been brew-in' took us by surprise.

From Bal – ti - more, to Apalch, F L A He wears a cape – sometimes he flies away.
Our minds were under lock and key, but somehow he got his way.
We never thought we get a guy.
Who could open our hearts to Christ, that's why ...
... We switched. We switched.

We switched, we switched. We're asking him to stay
He's smart and rich, well smart and that's okay!
He's handsome and a little witty, thank you, the search committee.
When it comes time to lead the flock,
We know that He, like Peter, will rock!
without ... a glitch!
