PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

When the Poor Ones
Paul Taylor, baritone

J. A. Olivar and M. Manzano
arr. Paul Taylor

When the poor ones who have nothing share with strangers, when the thirsty water give unto us all, when the crippled in their weakness strengthen others, then we know that God still goes that road with us. When at last all those who suffer find their comfort, when they hope though even hope seems hopelessness, when we love though hate at times seems all around us, then we know.... When our homes are filled with goodness in abundance, when we learn how to make peace instead of war, when each stranger that we meet is called a neighbor, then we know.... When we walk with God, oh, what joy it brings; He will bless us and will do miraculous things.

WELCOME

Pastor Grace Han

As we light our candles in the sanctuary, I invite you to join us in lighting your own candle at home. As we place the cross in the holder, we invite you to place something that reminds you of Trinity or your connection with God in front of you.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Pastor Grace Han

God has anointed us to bring good news to the poor.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon us!

To proclaim freedom for the prisoners
and recovery of sight for the blind,
to set the oppressed free.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon us!

For the Lord our God loves justice.

Let us worship the God of justice and peace.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon us!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND PARDON

Pastor Grace Han

Merciful God,

we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.

We have failed to be an obedient church.

We have failed to recognize your image in our neighbor.

We have failed to choose to advocate for your justice.

We have failed to create community which includes all and gives to all equal access to your abundant life.

Forgive us we pray.

Heal us we pray.

(Time for Silence and Prayer)

Hear the good news:

God's gift of grace in Jesus Christ forgives us and sets us free to live full human lives in community.

We may go forth confident of the grace to see with new eyes beyond prejudice;

to imagine with renewed fervor justice and mercy for all,

and to create with a new will a community where all are given access to God's abundant life.

Glory to God. Amen.

PASSING OF THE PEACE

We'd love to know you worshiped with us! Please register your attendance here. We also encourage you to comment below so we can be in community with you!

We invite the children who are worshiping at home to pay extra special attention. Each week Hannah Day Donoghue will send out Children's Worship Bulletin and Coloring Page for the children to do at home during this time.

PASTORAL PRAYER

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father,
 who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

SOLO

Go Light Your World

Chris Rice

Paul Taylor, baritone

adapt. Paul Taylor

There is a candle in ev'ry soul; some brightly burning, some dark and cold. There is a Spirit Who brings a fire, ignites a candle and makes His home. So, carry your candle, run to the darkness, seek out the hopeless, confused and torn. Hold out your candle for all to see it. Take your candle and go light your world. Frustrated brother, see how he's tried to light his own candle some other way. See now your sister, she's been robbed and lied to, still holds a candle without a flame. So carry your candle,... seek out the lonely, the tired and worn.... We are a fam'ly whose hearts are blazing, so let's raise our candles and light up the sky. Praying to our Father, in the name of Jesus, make us a beacon in darkest time. So, carry your candle,... seek out the helpless, deceived and poor.... Take your candle and go light your world.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Isaiah 61:1-3, 8-9

Pastor Grace Han

⁶¹ The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; ² to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; ³ to provide for those who mourn in Zion—to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, to display his glory.

⁸ For I the Lord love justice, I hate robbery and wrongdoing; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. ⁹ Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the Lord has blessed.

The Word of God for the People of God. Thanks be to God.

Luke 4:14-21

¹⁴ Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. ¹⁵ He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

¹⁶ When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, ¹⁷ and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: ¹⁸ "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, ¹⁹ to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." ²⁰ And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹ Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

SUNDAY MORNING AT TRINITY CHURCH

Music Notes

The flowers on the altar are given to the glory of God.

Today's Prelude: José Antonio Olivar and Miguel Manzano, two former priests from Spain, wrote the words and music for this lovely hymn, which may be found in The United Methodist Hymnal (#434). The hymn's text (translated into English by George Lockwood) is a paraphrase of Matthew 25: 31-45, in which Jesus warns that whatever we do or fail to do to the least of his family, we do or fail to do to him. Beginning reverse images of those in Matthew (the poor share, the thirsty give water, the crippled strengthen others), the authors provide a series of "transformative encounters with the Sacred" that can help us know when God truly walks with us. In these, we are reminded that "Jesus instructs us to see his face in the least privileged, the least powerful, to intentionally reject greed and embrace compassion. The hymn's refrain also recalls the journey of the disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35). Just when they felt most lost and abandoned, Christ was walking beside them." The music is marked by a haunting Spanish quality, resulting from a prevailing minor key, slow tempo, and syncopated rhythms. For today's service, Paul Taylor has revised the setting that appears in the hymnal, adding a different piano accompaniment, a change into a major key for the final verse, and a newly-composed closing passage. (Interpretations of the hymn's text are based on "When the Poor Ones"—Hymn Meditation" by Pam McAllister, with specific quotations indicated.)

Today's Solo is a well-known contemporary Christian song from the 1990s, with words and music by Chris Rice, that has been recorded by Rice, Kathy Troccoli, and others. The lyrics, which suggest Matthew 5:14-16 ("You are the light of the world ... let your light shine before others..."), urge each of us to be a beacon for all to see and to carry our candle (light) especially to those who are hopeless, confused, and torn; lonely, tired and worn; helpless, deceived, and poor. We are urged also to spread our light to those who have tried unsuccessfully to light the candle in their soul in ways other than through the light of the Spirit and to those whose candle remains dark because they have suffered injustices. The adaptation used today draws in part from a version of the song published by BMG Songs, Inc. (1993).

Fellowship Time via ZOOM on Sunday after Church: After worship this morning, we invite you to a time of fellowship via Zoom led by our Program Director Hannah Day Donoghue! This will be a time for us to connect after worship, check-in, and to have a time of conversation about worship. Click here to join. For questions, contact our Program Director, Hannah at programdirector@trinityalexandria.org.

Worship Online this Sunday: We are worshipping online via our Trinity's Facebook page and our website: www.trinityalexandria.org. On Saturday evenings, we are sending out an email with links to the worship sites and the bulletin for worship that Sunday. This Sunday, we invite you to be intentional about finding a space in your home to worship and to be truly present in a time of worship. For additional questions about how to worship online, please contact the Church Office: office@trinityalexandria.org.

Resources for What Love Looks Like Sermon Series: As part of this week's sermon, we are encouraging you to intentionally seek out perspectives that are not your own. We have compiled a list of resources here! We encourage you to commit to growing and learning as we make our implicit biases explicit and work to actively love one another.

"What Love Looks Like" Sermon Series: Shortly after the death of George Floyd, an Episcopal priest named Craig Loya asked: "What does love look like?" He concluded: "Not like this." In the past few weeks and months, we have been haunted by images of racialized violence across our country. We have faced a global pandemic that has limited the way we care and love for one another. We are facing a difficult reality where it seems, at times, that love is absent. Through this series we will look at what love looks like in the face of COVID-19. What love looks like as we face racial injustice and prejudice. And how we are called not only to look, but to act in love. I hope you will join us for this important series.

This Bible study will involve unearthing some of our own biases and assumptions we have been taught about people who are directly affected by these issues. I hope to see many of you there. Stay tuned for further details. For questions contact, Hannah at programdirector@trinityalexandria.org.
