

Brian Gross
Chief Financial Officer

As our chief financial officer, Brian's primary responsibility is to contribute to the company's overall strategy and lead the finance, client solutions delivery, customer support and operations departments. In his daily role, he oversees all the moving parts that bring CONTROLTEK's solutions to the customer: from production, to vendor relations, to warehousing, to logistics and finance.

Brian is a finance and accounting professional with over 14 years of experience. Prior to joining CONTROLTEK, Gross served at companies such as Ideal Image Group, Wyndham Hotels & Resorts and PwC. Gross is a certified public accountant and holds a Master of Business Administration from Rutgers University.
