2014 NEC Compliant Products – Residential and Wiring Device Solutions

Keeping up with industry solutions is important, especially considering the most recent code update in Pennsylvania. Speakers Walt Cunningham and Mark Stephens will provide attendees with a host of residential solutions available by Eaton that result in code compliance, safety, and savings. Join us for a technical discussion on the following solutions:

- ARC Fault & Ground Fault Compliance
- Energy Savings Solutions
- Selecting the proper grade of device to suit the application
- Labor Savings Solutions
