We are aware that there are many unknowns and uncertainty in this season. Opinions will run the gamut with regards to safety concerns and each person is responsible to choose how they wish to conduct themselves in public.

As believers in Christ we are committed to follow His Word that tells us in Romans 12:10, "Be devoted to tenderly loving your fellow believers as members of one family. Try to outdo yourselves in respect and honor of one another."

It is our highest aim to continue to show the love of Christ to all who come to one of our campuses. As always we will keep on "loving people to life"!
