

Joint Reformation Worship Service

Lutheran congregations and Rostered Ministers from around the Tidewater Conference will come together to commemorate the Reformation with a joint worship service. All are invited to attend this joint service where we will hear the Word proclaimed and share in the sacrament of Holy Communion.

Join us at First Lutheran Church of Norfolk (1301 Colley Ave, Norfolk, VA, 23517) on October 29, 2017 at 4:00PM.

- Join us as we commemorate the Reformation with food and fellowship!
- We will slow smoke a whole pig with a variety of other great foods available
- Bring your favorite fall beverage to share with others!
- Fun and fellowship for all ages!
- Games and bounce house for kids!
- All are welcome! Bring a friend!

Stop by the fellowship hall at St Michael Lutheran Church on Sundays, October 15th through November 12th 2017 between early (8:30 AM) and late (11:00 AM) worship services and following the late service to order fascinating books on the Reformation for you and your family.

Our Bookstore is sponsored by Augsburg Fortress, the publishing ministry of the ELCA. The books will include bestselling biographies like Luther the Reformer, as well as an Atlas of the European Reformation, a graphic novel for young readers, and primary sources from The Annotated Luther series.

Visiting Professor Dr. Eric Crump will join us to commemorate Luther's Birthday and the Reformation with a lecture "Law and Gospel: A Proposal for a Reformation."

Dr. Eric Crump was born in Charlottesville, Virginia and received his BA from St. Olaf College in 1975 majoring in philosophical theology, hermeneutics and literary theory, and theoretical physics. He received his M.A. in Divinity in 1977 and his Ph.D. in Systematic Theology in 1989 from The Divinity School of the University of Chicago with a dissertation entitled: "Imagination, Representation, and Faith: Foundations for a Revised Representational Christology." Dr. Crump taught at the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg from 1991-2009 in systematics, historical theology, and theological ethics.

Dr. Eric Crump will be present a lecture at St Michael Lutheran Church on Thursday, November 9, 2017 at 7:00 PM. An open forum will follow his lecture addressing A Proposal for the Reformation of Law and Gospel. Dr. Crump will explore the intricacies surrounding natural law, the Decalogue, and Jesus' great love commandment.

Dr. Crump will also join us on Sunday, November 12, 2017 between worship services (8:30 AM and 11:00 PM) for Adult Sunday school to continue the conversation surrounding how Lutheran's interpret God's Law and the Good News received through God's Word.

All are welcome to attend these two opportunities to visit with our Professor in Residence as we continue our commemoration of Luther's 95 Theses.
