

One person can't change laws but 20,000 can

Come learn about the Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy and how they unite Virginians of faith to fight for social justice.

Recent VICPP accomplishments include:

- Expanding Medicaid to bring healthcare access to 400,000 uninsured Virginians
- Passing a law mandating that employers give all employees a pay stub
- Removing Jim Crow-era language from laws that allowed historically African American professions to be paid less than minimum wage

Tuesday, June 4, 6:30 p.m.

Central Church of the Brethren

416 Church Avenue SW Roanoke, VA

To register visit <http://center.social/roanoke>

The Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy advocates economic, social and environmental justice in Virginia's policies and practices through education, prayer and action.