 ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

TODAY! PALM SUNDAY!

You Shall be Called Repairers of the Breach: Isaiah 58

During these several weeks over the Lenten Period, we have considered how to give/participate in the annual One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) opportunity.

Palm Sunday, has been the day designated each year to receive, and bless this special offering. It will be collected at the door to the worship center in a basket, or mailed into the church office. (256 Bethel Road, Glen Mills Pa 19342).

Please be sure to mark your checks with the designation of OGHS.

Sermon Notes

2. Philadelphia was the youngest of the seven cities, a colony founded by Pergamum in the middle of the second century B.C. The king of Pergamum loved his brother which is why he named it Philadelphia.
 - a. It was founded as a border town to serve as a missionary of Greek culture to the immediate east. It was so successful that the entire Lydian population spoke Greek. Now, Jesus declares that they will have "an open door that no one can shut" (3:18).
 - b. Like Smyrna, it was loyal to Rome, twice renaming itself after two emperors in gratitude for their support. The names didn't stick, but the promise of receiving a new name (3:12) was one that they would have longed for.
 - c. It suffered an earthquake in A.D. 17, one that destroyed many cities including Sardis. Everyone rebuilt, but Philadelphia continued to experience problems because the tremors continued for years. Most of the people lived outside of the city in huts and tents, fearfully going back to gather what they needed. The promise of, "never again will they leave it" (3:12) would have had great meaning to them.
- B. Both cities suffered from the synagogues of Satan. Throughout history the people of God had referred to themselves as "the assembly of the Lord". In 2:9 and 3:9, Jesus describes their Jewish persecutors as "the synagogue (assembly) of Satan".
 1. Barclay's six slanders of the Jews against believers.
 - a. They accused them of being cannibals on the basis of the sacrament.
 - b. They accused them of gathering for immoral orgies because they called their meals together the Agape' (the Love Feast).
 - c. They accused them of being home wreckers.
 - d. They accused them of being atheists because they had no images of the gods.
 - e. They accused them of being disloyal citizens because they refused to declare Caesar as Lord.
 - f. They accused them of being rioters and provocateurs because they taught about the end of the world.
- C. Jesus commands both churches to "hold on to what you have" (3:11) and to "not be afraid" and "be faithful" (2:10).
 1. Smyrna will receive the "victor's crown" (2:10). The hill of Smyrna, with all its magnificent buildings caused it to be known as the city of crowns.
 2. Philadelphia will be "a pillar in the temple of God" (3:12). No earthquake will destroy it or cause them to leave. Their new name will bear the name of God Himself and His holy city.
 3. These are the two churches for whom God has only words of encouragement and nothing negative to declare.

Sermon Notes

APRIL 13, 2025

I. Hold On to What You Have

Revelation 2:8-11; 3:7-13

The Churches at Smyrna and Philadelphia

- A. Two churches that were different in history and in culture, but alike in the Lord's eyes in regard to their faithfulness.
1. Smyrna was a rival to Ephesus in many ways. It had an active harbor, protected by its natural location at the head of a gulf and, as a result, it was a leading mercantile city, not as large or as influential as Ephesus, but, nevertheless, a famous city (think Baltimore).
 - a. It was known for its loyalty to Rome and was a free city.
 - b. It was an exceptionally beautiful city. Completely destroyed by the Lydians around 600 B.C., it was rebuilt from scratch in 200 B.C. as a carefully planned city.
 - c. It was situated on a hill, rising up from the harbor, with wide, stone-paved streets, magnificent buildings and temples, and topped off with the Street of Gold which had a temple of a famous god at each end.
 - d. Its people were just as impressive, with a reputation for learnedness as well as artistic and cultural accomplishments.
 - e. It had a significant population of Jews who were a cause of persecution and imprisonment to the church, many of whom came from their ranks.
