Silent Preparation

"Hold On"

Be still now,
and breathe in grace.
You have come carrying burdens
seen and unseen.

What feels worn is not forgotten.
What feels empty is not beyond filling.
The God who called you here
is the God who restores.

He restores what was broken,
refreshes what has grown weary,
renews the anointing that time
and trial could not erase.

You may feel the weight of waiting,
the ache of unanswered prayers,
the struggle of holding on through the night—
but do not let go.

For the blessing often comes
not when the struggle ends,
but when faith refuses to release
its grip on God.

So hold on.
Hold on in trust.
Hold on in hope.
Hold on in quiet surrender.

The One who wrestles with you
will not leave you unchanged.
He will bless you.
He will renew you.
He will restore you.

Be still...
and wait for the blessing . . .

Please silence all electronic devices.
