

NCWIE women in engineering

Mark your calendars for the upcoming bi-annual NC Women in Engineering Conference, scheduled for March 8, 2024, in Greensboro. Our mission is to unite female engineers and their peers for a day brimming with opportunities for professional advancement, networking, and individual enrichment. The 2024 conference will spotlight two distinct tracks, one for Professional Development (offering PDH/CEU credits) and the other for Personal Development. Elevate your participation by exploring our four unique sponsorship tiers for the 2024 NCWIE Conference.
