

NEW: 81st General Convention Debrief

Wednesday, October 2, 7-8:30 p.m., via Zoom

Join members of the deputation to the 81st General Convention and the bishops to learn about what we, as The Episcopal Church, accomplished during the triennial gathering held June 23-28 in Louisville, Kentucky.

Register.

NEW: 'Bearing Witness' Facilitator Training

Tuesday, September 17, 7-8:30 p.m., via Zoom

"Bearing Witness" is a free video-based study program from the American Friends of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem (AFEDJ). It shares the stories of people living in Palestine and Israel, plus the remarkable ministries of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem that bring hope and healing in this volatile part of the world.

In this facilitator training, participants will learn about the program resources, become comfortable with the flow and timing of sessions, and sharpen their facilitator skills.

Contact the Bearing Witness team with questions.

Register.

NEW: There's Still Time to Order Your Gospel-based Discipleship

Deadline: September 30

If you would like a hard copy of the 2024-2025 Gospel-Based Discipleship sent to your home, please place your order no later than Sept. 30. There is no charge--we're happy to send you what you need. But we do need you to place your order by emailing communications@episdionc.org. Please be sure to include the number of copies you need and the address to which you'd like them sent. Copies will arrive in time for the start of Advent.

(Graphic available)

Grand Opening: The Pauli Murray Center (Entry passes sold out; registration no longer required)

Saturday, September 7, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., 906 Carroll St, Durham

The Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice invites everyone to come out for a day filled with celebration, community, and thanksgiving as the center opens its doors to the public!

Be one of the first visitors to step inside the Durham childhood home of the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray--Episcopal priest, civil rights activist, lawyer, educator, historian, writer, LGBTQ community member and Durhamite. Outdoor activities will feature original poetry, signature refreshments, meditation and reflection opportunities, a youth activity zone, and community concert. Entry passes to the house are sold out.

The ECW Harris Evans Conference

Friday, September 6, 7-8:30 p.m. via Zoom

The Episcopal Church Women (ECW) of North Carolina invite you to this year's Harris Evans Conference, where women across the diocese will engage in worship, prayer, study, service and fellowship, with the aim of sharing the good news of Jesus Christ. It is one of the many activities that the ECW undertakes to support the different gifts, values and ministries of women, and to advance the role of women in the mission of the Church.

This year's presenter will be the Rev. Lisa Fischbeck, who will be speaking on the conference theme of "churches expanding hospitality to provide supportive and affordable housing."

Register for the conference.

Are You Subscribed to the Disciple?

If you've been missing the stories from across the diocese that inspire, educate, entertain and connect us all, subscribe to the Disciple today!

Subscriptions are available in two forms: digital and print.

- Digital subscriptions are available at no cost. Search "The North Carolina Disciple" in the App Store or Play Store, opt into notifications so you'll know when new issues drop, and start exploring the archive.
- Print subscriptions are $12 for a full year (4 issues), with an option to auto-renew so you never miss another issue. Subscribe to the print edition.

However you prefer to read it, don't miss another issue of the Disciple - subscribe today