

Jennifer M. Pizio is the director in the Office for Diversity and Inclusion at the University of Toledo. In this position, she works closely with administrators, faculty, staff and students to implement UT's Strategic Diversity Plan. Jennifer has 15 years' experience as a post-secondary administrator. She also teaches undergraduate courses in diversity. Pizio earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from California State University at Fullerton, a master of arts degree in sociology from the University of Texas at El Paso, and has completed all course work toward a doctoral degree in higher education administration at UT. Jennifer has facilitated dialogues about diversity and inclusion with local, regional, and national audiences including non-profits, corporations, and government officials.