VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are getting ready for an incredibly fun Sports Day on Monday, May 24! We are looking for additional volunteers to assist with various aspects of the event on the day of. If you are interested in volunteering, and being part of this awesome event, please email Matthew Hocherman at matthew@bjcst.org.

NEW CHANGES TO BJC COVID POLICY

We would like to share some additional changes to our COVID19 protocols that our Shul plans to implement starting this Friday night, April 30, which have been approved by the Executive Committee.

- The 7:30 am Hashkama Minyan will continue to be a fully masked Minyan.
- The 9:00 am & 9:45 am Minyan on Shabbos and all Friday night and weekday Minyanim will allow attendees that are fully vaccinated, defined as at least two weeks after receiving the final vaccine dose required, to be able to sit in a designated section without a mask. We will not be requiring any pre-registration or the submission of any CDC vaccination cards. Children under the age of 16 will be able to sit next to their parents, who are fully vaccinated, in the vaccinated section, if they wear a mask.
- The 9:00 am Minyan on Shabbos and all Friday night and all weekday Minyanim will take place in our new Sanctuary, formerly the gym, and be divided into a vaccinated section and an unvaccinated section in both the men's and women's sections.
- The 9:45 am Minyan on Shabbos morning will take place in our old Sanctuary, and it will be divided into a vaccinated section and an unvaccinated section in the men's section and only a vaccinated section in the women's section.
- The person who is leading services, or reading from the Torah, at any of our Weekday or Shabbos Minyanim, including the Hashkama Minyan, can remove their mask while leading these services if they are fully vaccinated.
- A mask must be worn while in the shared spaces of the shul, such as the restrooms, the room with the cubbies, the lobby, the hallways, the library, etc.

We are excited for this next phase of our "re-opening" and we thank you in advance for your cooperation as we enter this next phase. If there are any questions, please contact our office at (561) 477-8872.

GET YOUR CODE TO ACCESS BJC

If you are a member in good standing, and attend Weekday Minyanim at BJC regularly, please contact Jason in the Shul Office to get your personalized code to access the Shul during Minyan times.
