SECURITY UPDATE

Dear Friends,

Earlier this week there were families in our greater Boca Raton Jewish Community that woke up to find Anti-Semitic letters outside of their homes. Prior to this news, our leadership has been working diligently to upgrade the security protocols at BJC. Now, in light of this recent event, we are working even harder to implement an exhaustive plan that will significantly enhance how we protect our Shul, and of course, our members.

We will be working on establishing these protocols over the next several weeks and will share them with you at that time. We hope that you, our most important stakeholders, will help us ensure that these protocols are adhered to so that we can provide a warm, yet safe environment for everyone.

Sincerely,

Dr. Yakov Elefant
Abe Grohman
Warren Struhl

NEW MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Steven & Rachel Steinhardt & Family

Q. Are you able to tell us a little bit about your family?

A. Steven (Shlomo) grew up in Monsey, NY, and is Ashkenazi, and Rachel grew up in Long Island, NY, and is an Israeli Sepharadi. Rachel is a psychotherapist and Steven does MedTech Market Research. Our baby, Natanel Yehoshua is turning 1 in July, and Rachel is due with baby #2 B'Shah Tova in July as well!

Q. What brought you to the Boca Jewish Center Community?

A. We have always wanted to move to Florida. We lived in Brooklyn until we finally found our home in Boca after our careers allowed us to move.

Q. What is something that others would find interesting?

A. Rachel has been dancing her whole life. She ran the dance program at Stern, worked with DJ's at smachot and choreographed music videos for the Maccabeats. Steven has lived in Israel, NYC, the Caribbean, Texas, & North Miami Beach.

NEW MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Binyomin & Leeba Berger & Family

Q. Are you able to tell us a little bit about your family?

A. Binyomin and Leeba Berger recently moved to Boca after living in Baltimore for the past 25 years. Binyomin is a Partner at RSM US LLP, a global accounting firm, and Leeba is a Speech-Language pathologist. The Bergers have four children, Chaya, Sara Chava, Yona, and Naamah, and a son-in-law, Eliezer. They are also the proud grandparents of Sammy.

Q. What brought you to the Boca Jewish Center Community?

A. Binyomin recently accepted a position with his firm's South Florida practice. When evaluating the many communities, they were very impressed by the Jewish Community in Boca Raton, and in particular, the Boca Jewish Center community. The warmth and welcoming nature of the community made them instantly feel at home.

Q. What is something that others would find interesting?

A. When not working or in school, you'll usually find the Bergers at the beach, or Binyomin chasing down fly balls hit off of Naamah's baseball bat.

NEW MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Daniel Sommers

Q. Are you able to tell us a little bit about yourself?

A. Born and raised in Toronto, Canada in a reform Jewish home, after attending law school in Miami Daniel launched and managed a successful corporate and employment law firm for almost a decade. He has served in COO roles and is a chairman of the ethics working group of the International Society of Military Science.

Q. What brought you to the Boca Jewish Center Community?

A. Being Ba'al Teshuva, Daniel sought out an orthodox shul upon arriving in Florida last month. He found the Boca Jewish Center and after hearing one of Rabbi Gibber's amazing Drashas he knew he had found the right shul for him.

Q. What is something that others would find interesting?

A. Daniel is a serving officer in the Canadian army reserve.

A. Naomi and I both grew up in Brooklyn but settled in Lakewood and have been living here for the past 18 years. Almost all our siblings live in walking distance. We have 6 kids. 4 girls & 2 boys. The oldest ones are 17 year old twin girls and the youngest is 3.

Q. What brought you to the Boca Jewish Center Community?

A. We researched different neighborhoods and everyone said the most amazing things about BJC and the community. We were looking for a nice community and we love the diversity and meeting new people. Rabbi Gibber is a one of a kind rabbi and it's a real pleasure to be a part of the community.

Q. What is something that others would find interesting?

A. 1. Naomi and I grew up 2 blocks away from each other but didn't know each other. 2. I was in a restaurant in Israel where a suicide bomber detonated a bomb. Sadly, 10 people died but luckily I came out unscathed.
