

WTF ... Where's the Fish Issue # 49

April 28, 2022

The past week has brought warmer waters and some leader board catches. Wahoo, Mahi, Tuna, and King Mackerel have been caught offshore in the Gulf Stream at 120 - 250 ft of water and Spanish Mackerel are plentiful nearshore. Nice trout have been caught inshore and bass are being caught in neighborhood ponds. May should be a great month!

So, WTF... Where's the Fish

Nick Colatasti caught a nice Wahoo this week aboard Matais with Capt. Hiroki Toma.

Bob Pierce caught this 41 in Mahi aboard Blue Waters, Capt. Craig Thompson!

Steve Viltofts caught this 36 inch Black Fin Tuna in late March in the Gulf Stream. He, Andre Chong, Ken Polidahl landed 10 tuna with Oak Island Charters

Russ Berkoben caught this leaderboard 21.5 inch Spanish Mackerel. Capt. Russ and crew aboard "Reel E Blessed" landed 10 keepers trolling Clark Spoons and casting Spanish Candy.

Captain Bill Bunting caught two leader board fish, an Atlantic Bonito 24 in and a Bluefish 18 in! (no photo available)

Capt. John Winter and crew aboard Mary B had a shark take a hooked King Mackerel.

Larry Miller caught this 20 in bass in the pond behind his house.

Bob Pierce, Joe Mastropietro, and Rob Sullivan had a great day on Blue Waters, Capt. Craig Thompson!

Capt. Hiroki Toma and crew John Garrett, Jim McCarthy, Ted Stephens and I went out to the stream and caught Black Fin Tuna and a Wahoo.
