

American-ish

Panel Discussion

In Collaboration with Candid Conversation,
ICGC Youth & UC MSA

You're Invited to join Us!

Sunday, July 11th
from 4:00 pm-5:00 pm

ICGC Mirror Hall

The film won an audience award for the 2021 Center for Asian American Media film festival and tells the story of two marriage age sisters and their newly immigrated cousin as they navigate the sometimes-inevitable tensions that arises between competing societal and cultural norms, with a story that is unconventional, funny and heartwarming. The film's Director Iman Zawahri and other stars from the film will attend the event in person.

