

ICGC INVITES YOU TO AN EVENING WITH

IMAM MUSTAFA UMAR

WHO WILL BE DISCUSSING

“DRUGS, SEX AND ALCOHOL”

AN ESSENTIAL DISCUSSION FOR YOUTH AND PARENTS

Mustafa Umar completed a B.S. in Information and Computer Science from UC Irvine, a B.A. in Theology & Islamic Law from the European Institute of Islamic Sciences in France, and an M.A. in Islamic Studies from the University of Gloucestershire in the UK. He also studied the Islamic sciences for a year at Nadwatul Ulama in Lucknow, India and spent another year studying in Cairo, Egypt.

He has authored several books, served the Muslim community of Southern California as an Imam and activist for over a decade, and is currently the founder and president of California Islamic University, the Director of Education and Outreach at the Islamic Institute of Orange County, and an executive member of the Fiqh council of North America.

We are living in interesting times which can often be confusing for Muslims....

With the legalization of marijuana, same sex marriages, and other issues, Muslims need to understand the parameters of what their religion allows, and learn how to deal with those who do not live within the boundaries of Islam.
