ICGC Scholar and Religious Leader Fund

Overview

Central to our religion is the value of education. The Islamic Educational Council has launched a scholarship fund to be established for Muslims within the United States wanting to pursue a career as religious and/or institutional leaders.

Number of Scholarships to be Awarded: Two

Each Scholarship Award: $7,500

Apply by Jun 20, 2022

Qualifications

- Applicant must be a Muslim within the United States
- Applicant must be a US Citizen or Permanent Resident
- Applicant must be attending a US-based institution
- Applicant must maintain a 3.0 or higher GPA

Requirements for Application and Documents to be Submitted

The applicant must be US Muslims wanting to pursue a career as religious and/or institutional leaders at a US-based Islamic Institution.

Please submit the following:

1. Scholarship application form.
2. A letter of acceptance to the institution that the applicant will be attending.
3. Two letters of recommendation from someone attesting to the applicant's academic aptitude and one letter attesting to the individual's character and values.
4. An essay of approximately 500 words in length that describes the applicant's desire to pursue a career as a religious and/or institutional leader, a description of their career goals, and what forms of education will be required to achieve their goals.

Select applicants who are deemed eligible based on their application will be invited for a personal interview as a second step of the application process. Please send application and all related documents to scholarship@icgc.us

Note: Scholarship funds will be paid directly to the educational institution and not to the applicant.
