

MIARAKA

A TIME TO DANCE

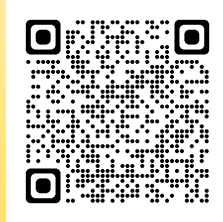

was born through darkness, heartache, a light of hope, and the need to awaken worldwide consciousness of the global issues of poverty, trafficking, and prostitution.

When cyclone Haruna hit southern Madagascar where the Rev. Patsy McGregor and her husband Bishop Todd McGregor lived and worked, Rev. Patsy was heartbroken for the Malagasy people and saddened by the lack of worldwide awareness. Finding consolation in knowing that God is praying for us, Rev. Patsy scratched a few words on paper and then together with her friend, Collette, the first song took form leading to 52 more songs. A few months later God poured an idea from heaven— a storyline that tied all the songs together creating a musical to share a story of hope, love, and redemption.

Miaraka: A Time to Dance is a modern day musical of Mary Magdalene and the love of Jesus as God loves her back to life.

A musical of Hope, Love and Redemption

MIARAKA

A TIME TO DANCE

MIARAKA
is the Malagasy word for TOGETHER.

We believe God is blending worldwide cultures through Miaraka: A Time to Dance and working to unify society.

"Alone
we can do so little;
TOGETHER
we can do so much."
—Helen Keller

Performed in Mauritius, Madagascar, the USA, and in South Africa at the invitation of the Desmond and Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation, the next planned performance will be in Rome in 2024.

Miaraka: A Time to Dance continues to offer the opportunity for many to be involved, communicating God's truth through musical expression, proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ while responding to human need, providing awareness, hope and empowerment.

MIARAKA
A TIME TO DANCE

Dedicated to the women of Madagascar.

Proceeds from the musical provide hope and empowerment to marginalized women.

Miaraka: A Time to Dance

reminds us to celebrate God & scatter Joy

God stretches us, causing us to listen.
God seeks, sneaks, squeaks and speaks.

God seeks: God initiates relationship with us and seeks to know us personally.

God sneaks: God sneaks into our lives; quietly, gently, whispering into our hearts.

God squeaks: Surprising us, God gets our attention. Life gets messy.
God is with us, picking up the pieces.

God speaks: Giving us gifts and talents, we have a ripple effect into the community.

Life becomes a time to dance.
