Top Municipal Initiative

Bredenbury Community Daycare
Town of Bredenbury

To address the lack of childcare options for residents, the town has established a licensed, town-owned daycare. This initiative not only supports families already living in the community and surrounding areas but also encourages new families to move there. The old school was renovated to house the daycare center, the firehall, the Lions Club, and private businesses.

Top Rural Municipal Initiative

RM of Enniskillen Grazing Project
RM of Enniskillen No. 3

The RM acquired a section of land along the Souris River, initially for gravel extraction, but with a vision for its potential as pastureland. A fence has been erected, and a community grazing plan has been developed. This innovative project is one of the first of its kind, and future plans include pasture tours for school groups and other interested parties. Tours will educate visitors on carbon sequestration, regenerative agriculture, animal impact, stock density, and soil armor.

Top Urban Municipal Initiative

Plewis Automotive Group Inclusive Park
City of Swift Current

Through collaboration with experts and community members, the city created an inclusive park designed according to the seven principles of Universal Play. The park is a welcoming space for all community members, featuring accessible amenities like symbol communication boards, double-wide ramps, the Sway Fun Wheelchair glider, braille panels, multiple swings including a wheelchair-accessible bucket swing, a sensory play center, and more.

Regional Cooperation

Fire Chief Collaboration/School, EMO Committee, and CSO Program
Towns of Duck Lake, Hauge, Hepburn, Rosthern, and Waldheim, and the RM's of Rosthern No. 403 and Duck Lake No. 463

The seven municipalities of the Twin Rivers District have worked together on three major initiatives to provide essential municipal services to their region. These initiatives enhance professional human resources, ensuring competent and proactive management of Fire and Rescue Services, the Emergency Measures Organization, and a Community Safety Officer program. Through shared responsibility and strong inter-municipal partnerships, the municipalities have created multiple successful, cost-sharing programs that directly address the needs of the region.
