

Respect in the Workplace:

Skills for support and belonging

Respect in the Workplace CERT is a quick, interactive training program to help you navigate challenges and create a culture you love. You'll gain practical skills to recognize, prevent, and respond to harmful behaviors like bullying, abuse, harassment and discrimination – all while strengthening connections within your team.

Respect in the Workplace
CERTIFIED
powered by Headversity

Why it matters to you

Everyone experiences challenges at work – misunderstandings, toxic dynamics, or feeling excluded. This program helps you:

- Reduce stress: Gain tools to handle tough situations with confidence and clarity.
- Feel safer at work: Know your rights and how to respond to harmful behavior
- Build better relationships: Strengthen trust and collaboration with your teammates

What to expect

- Earn your certification: A quick and effective 40-minute online session.

Pro tip:

Share your certification with your LinkedIn network in just a few taps!

- Keep growing: Stay sharp with periodic bite-sized activities to strengthen your leadership skillset.
- Engaging content: Learn through relatable scenarios and actionable tips – not dry lectures!

How to get started

1. Scan to access on the web or mobile app (available on iOS and Android).
2. Register with your e-mail address and invite code SARMCERT

Need help?

Contact our support team at help@headversity.com