C. Request for Cancellation and/or Payment

We certify that the above provincial lands have taxes owing for more than five business days after December 31 of the year of levy. The ministry is hereby requested to initiate the cancellation procedure in accordance with The Provincial Lands Act, 2016 and the current Municipal Tax Policy. It is clearly understood that it is the responsibility of the rural municipality to advise the ministry when taxes have been paid, and if no such advice is received from the rural municipality the cancellation procedure once begun will continue uninterrupted to final agreement cancellation.

Following agreement termination, or should agreement termination already have occurred, the rural municipality specifically requests payment of the above taxes in accordance with The Provincial Lands Act, 2016 and the current Municipal Tax Policy.
