

Rediscovering the Small Catechism

What does this mean...

Today?

Saturday, November 10th

9:30 am—3:00 pm

St. Paul's Lutheran Church 7412 South Broadway; Red Hook, NY

The Small Catechism is the little book that arguably binds Lutherans together in common experience perhaps more than anything else. Most life-long Lutherans have vivid memories of their youthful time with the Small Catechism. But this resource for faith formation is not just for kids! Moreover, those new to the Lutheran tradition may never have had the chance to engage the Small Catechism. What does this all mean today? We will experientially explore this question during our time together, worshipfully and conversationally attending to the faith themes that the Small Catechism addresses.

Pastor Jonathan Linman, Bishop's Assistant for Faith and Leadership Formation, will guide the day's experiences and conversations.

A Retreat for the Hudson Conference of the Metro New York Synod and friends. Please bring $5 for lunch on site.
