Grand Haven Area Community Foundation Welcomes Two New Board Members and Honors Outgoing Trustees

The Grand Haven Area Community Foundation (GHACF) is pleased to welcome Renee Denslow and Terry Nash to its Board of Trustees. Both bring extensive professional experience, strong leadership, and a deep commitment to strengthening the local community.

Renee Denslow joins the board with more than two decades of leadership experience spanning finance, marketing, construction, and nonprofit management. She most recently served as Executive Director of Bluebird Cancer Retreats of West Michigan, where she led the organization's growth and deepened partnerships with donors, volunteers, and community organizations. Denslow is also the founder of 3D Homes, LLC, a design and project management firm specializing in custom residential and commercial projects. Her longstanding commitment to community service includes involvement with the Grand Haven Area Community Foundation's Grants Committee and other local nonprofit and education initiatives.

Terry Nash serves as Managing Director at Coach Road Capital, where he oversees a diverse portfolio of retail and real estate investments. He brings significant expertise in finance and investment strategy, with prior experience at CenterPoint Properties and in regional banking. Nash has already been actively engaged with GHACF through his service on both the Audit and Investment Committees. A longtime resident of Spring Lake, he and his family are deeply connected to the lakeshore community.

"We are thrilled to welcome Renee and Terry to the Board of Trustees," said Natalia Kovicak, Board Chair of GHACF. "Their leadership, professional expertise, and passion for community impact will help guide the Foundation's work in the years ahead."

At the same time, the Foundation extends its sincere appreciation to outgoing board members Mary Carole Cotter and David Swain for their years of dedicated service. Through their leadership and commitment, both have played an important role in advancing the Foundation's mission and strengthening the community it serves.

"Mary Carole and David have made lasting contributions through their thoughtful leadership and dedication to philanthropy," said Natalia Kovick. "We are deeply grateful for their service and the meaningful impact they have had on our organization and community."

"The strength of our organization is rooted in the commitment of our volunteers," said Hadley Streng, President and CEO. "We are fortunate to have nearly 100 individuals serving on our boards and committees, and their time, insight, and leadership play an essential role in advancing our mission. We are very grateful for their dedication and service."

The Grand Haven Area Community Foundation carries out its work through its strategic focus on impacting community, inspiring philanthropy, and managing investments to sustain long-term community impact.

About the Grand Haven Area Community Foundation

The Grand Haven Area Community Foundation is a public, charitable organization serving Northwest Ottawa County community since 1971. GHACF is regularly recognized as a top 100 Community Foundation in the nation and is the 8th largest community foundation in the State of Michigan.
