UJA Federation

The United Jewish Appeal of Wilmington is the local chapter of the UJA-Federation which raises and allocates funds to fulfill its mission to care for people in need. By providing access to crucial human services, UJA improves the lives of people living in poverty, children and adults with disabilities and special needs, the aging, and the unemployed.

There are humanitarian emergencies all over the world affecting Jews and non-Jews alike. UJA-Federation of North America, and its partners, take seriously their ethical responsibility to ensure the welfare of all people. Our work on behalf of those in need has literally touched thousands and thousands around the globe.

Monies earned by the UJA of Wilmington through our fundraising activities are used to provide financial support for a network of charitable activities and agencies in Wilmington, in the State of North Carolina, and around the world, serving as a lifeline to those facing adversity and untold hardship....a reminder that we are all part of one people....never alone and never forgotten.
