

AUGUST 2022 UPDATE

A Word from Our Director...

The Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) will continue to provide support to the network as we motivate, change, and build new lives for the individuals in our respective communities. It is of the most importance we invest in our communities and add-value to the CAA Network through innovated programs and initiatives, information technology and systems, and best practices.

OEO Welcomes, Hunter Huffman—Fiscal Analyst

Mr. Huffman is originally from Illinois where he was born and raised in the western suburbs of Chicago. He began his career working for a nonprofit in Asheville, North Carolina at a youth Psychiatric Residential Treatment Facility (PRTF) as well as a technical college and group home for former foster care youth. Mr. Huffman spent several years working in state government administration where he managed projects spanning the entire state with budgets in the tens of millions of dollars. This is where he gained extensive experience in public policy, federal grants management, and fiscal analysis. Just prior to joining the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) with the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services (NCDHHS), Mr. Huffman founded a company providing community based personal care and companionship services to seniors and adults with disabilities in the Triangle and surrounding areas.

Mr. Huffman graduated cum laude from Northern Illinois University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and a minor in Philosophy, and graduated Phi Alpha Alpha from N.C. State University with a Master of Public Administration (MPA). He also holds Graduate Certificates in Public Policy and Non-Profit Management from N.C. State University. Mr. Huffman enjoys spending time with his family and friends, reading, travelling to the N.C. coast and mountains, kayaking, hiking, and all things N.C. State sports.
