

Register Today for the 2020 NCCAA Board Summit

We are excited to have another exciting Board Summit in Wilmington, NC. This year we will be joined by leading experts in the field like CAPLAW Executive Director and General Counsel, Allison Ma'luf. Don't miss the opportunity to connect with other board members from across the state and hear from industry leaders on everything from board roles and responsibilities to assessing and understanding your agency's finances. We will also have a special dinner session to discuss the relationship between the Board and Head Start Policy Council.

Spaces fill quickly for this training so make sure you register today to join us Friday, May 16th and Saturday, May 17th for an intensive training designed exclusively for Board Members. Lunch and Friday evening's dinner is included with your registration. Whether you are a seasoned Board Member or only recently took on the role of sitting on a community action board, you will find this 2-day training engaging and informative.

The 2020 Board Summit agenda will be released soon. Click the link to visit our 2020 conference webpage for the latest updates and to view the agenda when it is available.
