Scrumptious Southern Brunch

Palm Sunday, March 24th, 2024

Immediately Following Worship in the Auditorium

This event has been a wonderful time for great food and fellowship for many years (since 2013)! The Brunch Team looks forward to cooking a Scrumptious Southern Brunch for all. Registration is required for this event to help with portion planning. Everyone is welcome! UConn students please be our guests.

To help with planning, we will have various ways for you to sign up to attend this awesome event. Please watch for the information in the eNews & Notes as well as the March Carillon.

While this is a church funded event, free will offerings to offset the cost of food are appreciated. With the higher cost of food, a suggested donation is $15 for adults and $5 for children. This is free event!

Contact: Marsha Creese if you are interested in helping with this annual event.

ON THE JOURNEY WITH PASTOR DIANE

Dear Friends,

Several months ago, I spoke with a staff member at Andover Newton Seminary at Yale about the number of M.Div. (Masters' in Divinity) students serving local congregations. I learned that there are more M.Div. students planning to answer a call to non-profit work than to the pulpit.

It is surprising information, yet it also speaks to the importance of ministering to our communities and populations well beyond the walls of a church. It speaks to the growing ways that our society needs spiritual connection and care. At SCC, we know this, given our myriad and busy outward-facing ministries. We know this through the ways we slowly strive to push the needle toward greater justice and joy for all.

So, as the Lenten season begins on February 14th, Ash Wednesday, I invite you to pause for a little while during a time that beckons us to reflection and introspection. I invite you to put down some of your burdens for a time, and to “lean into” Lent. Come to the Ash Wednesday service, come to Sunday worship (both in-person and online offered, of course). Participate in one of our Lenten offerings—a book study or weekly devotional conversation, or perhaps even Ukrainian egg painting with our UConn students! Put the services of Holy Week on your calendar. Lean into Lent with SCC, and see how it resonates in other areas of your life, into other communities. See how it might nourish your own spiritual connection to God and to others.

With the Peace of Christ,
Diane

GOVERNING BOARD MEETING ~ FEBRUARY 20TH

The next meeting of the Governing Board will be on Tuesday, February 20th, at 6:30 PM in person in Room 201 in the Education Building and via Zoom. Everyone is welcome to attend! If you'd like to receive the Zoom meeting invite and materials packet (so you can follow along with the meeting), contact Deborah in the office.

Please submit Ministry Reports and Items for Governing Board consideration via email to scoffice@storrsconchurch.org prior to Friday, February 9th.

MOTIONS FROM THE JANUAURY 9TH MEETING

Attendance: Bruce Bergen, Jim Davis, Tina Huey, Carolyn Holmy, David Jordan, Wes Lang-Rodean, Zoe Stricker, Nancy Tomastik

Present to Speak: Carol Jordan, Elizabeth Cowles

Carolyn opened with a reflection. Board members read thank-you notes from Office Manager Deborah Gacek and Pastor Diane Seaborn, who expressed appreciation for the holiday gift cards they received.

Consent Agenda

MOTION: Nancy Tomastik moved that the following items from the consent agenda be adopted by unanimous consent, with thanks and gratitude for all the good work people are doing.

1. That the Board approves the Minutes of the November 14, 2023, meeting of the Governing Board.
2. That the Board acknowledges receipt of the November updates from the Lead Ministry Coordinators.
3. That the board approve the Minutes of the December 12, 2023, meeting of the Governing Board
4. That the Board accepts the Treasurer's report from December 2023
5. That the Board acknowledges receipt of December reports from Lead Ministry Coordinators.

Carolyn Holmy seconded the motion. There was no dissent.

MOTION: Carolyn Holmy moved that the Governing Board approve Rosemary Marcellino as Coordinator for the Hospitality Ministry, as recommended by the Lead Ministry Coordinators and the Senior Minister.

Bruce Bergen seconded the motion. After a discussion, the motion was unanimously approved.

Call to Meeting: Carolyn discussed the call to the annual congregational meeting on January 28, 2024. The meeting will cover the election of officers, discussion of budget issues, and other topics as specified in the meeting template. The call will be read in worship on Jan. 21.

Topics for open discussion. The board:

- discussed motions approved during the Dec. 12 meeting that involved funding several building projects. A board member questioned whether the measures contained enough specificity about the source of funding. Carolyn noted that the motions were contingent on the reconciliation of the budget.
- discussed the large number of off-budget accounts on the church's books and questioned the purpose and transparency of some of these accounts. Former Treasurer Carol Jordan said a church auditor had long ago questioned the rationale for the many off-budget accounts and suggested that they be reviewed. Carol recommended the church conduct such a review to make better use of church resources.

MOTION: Nancy moved that spreadsheets of off-budget funds be provided to the congregation each time a church budget discussion is held or a decision is to be made, e.g. at a budget hearing, a budget-related congregational vote or the annual meeting. David seconded the motion.

MOTION: Tina moved to table Nancy's motion until after the annual budget meeting. Wes seconded the motion. It passed unanimously.

MOTION: Dave moved that the governing board appoint a task force to investigate the church's off-budget funds, their purposes, and the appropriate disposition of those funds. Wes seconded the motion. It passed unanimously.

The board also:

- Noted that the most recent policy book was updated in February 2020, distributed to the board and added to the new board-member packet.
- Discussed whether reports from Lead Ministry Coordinators should be submitted two weeks before Governing Board meetings. Liz reported that holding the Governing Board meetings on the second Wednesday of the month makes it difficult for the Treasurer to complete all required duties for the month. She suggested the board meet during the third week of the month.

Additions to Agenda

Report on the Memorial and Special Gifts Committee: Carol Jordan reported on the committee's recommendations regarding the disposition of funds. The donors and the committee's proposed use of their gifts include:

- Jessie Daniels: Gift to be used for a memorial service to be held on what would have been Jessie's hundredth birthday.
- Darryl Hilliard: Contribution to the SCC Food Pantry
- Lynn and Marjorie Brown: Contribution to Major Projects fund in honor of Kristine Della Fera
- Gift in honor of Elizabeth Hanks: Contribution to the Minister's Discretionary Fund

MOTION: Tina moved to accept the recommendations of the Memorial and Special Gifts Committee for the distribution of the funds. Wes and Jim Davis seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Special Budget Meeting Date: Carolyn called a special budget meeting for Jan.16 at 6:30 pm to discuss potential board action in the event of a budget surplus or deficit for the year.

COMING UP

- Joining Sunday 1/21: The Codr family (Ariana, Dwight, Cedar and Mack) will join the church!
- Deacons' Retreat on 1/21
- Annual Meeting on 1/28

Tasks: The Governing board will appoint a task force to investigate the church's off-budget funds, their purposes, and the appropriate disposition of those funds.

CLOSING

The board thanked outgoing board chair Carolyn Holmy and outgoing board members Nancy Tomastik and Bruce Bergen for their dedication and service. Nancy offered a closing prayer. The meeting was adjourned at 8:00pm.

FACILITIES CLOSED: MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19TH

Please note that the Facilities and Staff Offices will be closed on Presidents Day, Monday, February 19th. Work Study coverage will begin the office at 6:00 PM to support UConn student activity groups. The SCC Food Pantry will be open per normal operating hours 12-2PM.

FROM THE MUSIC MINISTRY LOFT

Well – last month I began with wishes for a happy season of light. Thus far January has not lived up to that hope with all the rain and dreary, cloudy days. I am most grateful for my week of vacation spent hiking in the sunny climes of Southern Arizona amongst saguaro cacti. Onward to Lent...

Choir and Bells are up and running! If there is any thought in your mind of trying out either ensemble, now is the time to jump on board. We're usually preparing pieces six to eight weeks ahead. Easter is early this year! Give me a call, catch me on Sunday, send an email. No audition necessary. We currently have more tenors in the choir than singers in each of the other sections (well, maybe the sopranos have as many) which probably makes us the envy of a whole lot of other church choirs, BUT we are ALWAYS looking for more voices. I guarantee you will feel better from all the oxygen intake, your mind will sharpen up keeping track of the counting, you will laugh, and you will especially cherish those spirit-filled moments when everyone comes together in song. It's powerful.

As promised last month I'm on the hunt for some new music, especially by Alice Parker, and more contemporary under-represented composers. There is so much good music being composed these days. It's a daunting task. The American Guild of Organists (AGO) celebrates women composers on March 10 (Lent 4), so I will try to feature them prominently on that day (and throughout the year). This month I'm also looking forward to attending two professional development events. On February 24 there is a joint collaboration between the AGO and the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) taking place at Trinity College, Hartford, titled "The Art of Gathering" that I really look forward to attending. Later in the month, February 28-March 2 is the ACDA Eastern Region Convention in Providence. I'm planning to attend at least one if not two days of sessions there. The difficulty will be deciding between often four concurrent workshops!

Look for our Ringers in worship on February 10 before we begin Lent. If you haven't attended an Ash Wednesday service yet, please come. The liturgy is moving; the music is woven throughout. It's a peaceful way to begin the forty days to Easter.

Soli Deo Gloria!

LENTEN OFFERINGS ~ BEGINS FEBRUARY 15TH

"Time to Wander" with Diane (online only)

We will gather on Zoom for an hour (7-8pm) in discussion of the daily devotional cards (available to pick up at church or have mailed to you). These are simple questions that invite us to travel into deeper waters together. Examples include: "What habit or mindset would you like to leave behind this Lenten season?" "When Peter and Jesus first meet, they catch an abundance of fish. What in your life feels abundantly good?"

Come every week or drop-in when you can! Looking forward to seeing you on Zoom! Wednesday evenings: (2/21, 2/28, 3/6, 3/13, 3/20)

SCC BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Our next book discussion will be held on March 17th, 2024 at 4:00 pm in the Library and via Zoom.

Join us as we discuss LIGHT FROM UNCOMMON STARS by Ryka Aoki. The science fiction and fantasy novel was nominated for the 2022 Hugo Award for Best Novel and selected for UConn Reads 2022-2023. In the story, Shizuki Satomi, the world's best violin teacher, coaches violin students, and then offers them fame and renown in exchange for their souls. Her final student is Katrena Nguyen, a transgender prodigy with little training. Santori meets Lou Tran, a retired starship captain, now a doughnut shop owner who has brought her family to earth to escape war and plague. As these three women's lives intertwine, they transform each other in subtle surprising ways.

NEED A LITTLE SOMETHING TO LOOK FORWARD TO?

Daylight saving time begins at 2 a.m. local time on Sunday, March 10, 2024, and will last until Nov. 3, 2024, when we switch back to standard time. The time change means an "extra hour of light" in the evening but that also means slightly darker mornings until the days stretch to their full length with the sun arising at 4:30 AM.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN THE LIBRARY?

It's hard to believe that...

- as soon as we “wrapped up” putting the Christmas decorations away we are thinking of Lent! This is the year that Ash Wednesday falls early – February 14, and Easter will be on March 31, one of the earliest dates on which it occurs.
- your library here at church is no different. With weather the way it has been we finally shelved the Advent/Christmas books that were on display. Our supply of books for Ground Hog Day, Ash Wednesday, Valentine's Day (the same day this year) and then quickly the Easter reading material will be readily available. There will also be the Book Discussion Group on March 17th. Thank goodness we do have the gift of February 29, Leap Year Days. Anyone a Leap Year Child? You should be feeling quite young this year!

Please join us by selecting some winter reading and adding in some devotional materials and more. You are always welcome in the library!

FOOD PANTRY ADVISORY BOARD MEETING & INFO

Monday, February 26th, 2024, 2:15 PM in the SCC Library

Our January meeting was blessed to have special goodies brought by an International Food Pantry guest returning from his winter break. We are thankful to share in diverse offerings from our guests.

For folks who like to make monthly donations to the Food Pantry – well, we've got a new idea for 2024. Months of Focus Foods!!! Each month, the Food Pantry will request a specific type of product for members to collect and donate. Of course, all donations are greatly appreciated and if you'd rather give something not on the list, we also applaud and support independent thinkers with grateful appreciation as well.

Consider joining this group that meets the 4th Monday of the month in the Library. We discuss our Food Pantry, it's role in the community, how we can better serve those who use it. If you are interested in joining this group, contact Jan Hoyle or just come to the meeting on Monday @ 2:15 PM. The meeting usually starts after the Food Pantry closes on Monday to allow folks the convenience of staying after either shopping, donating or volunteering at the pantry.

This is an exciting time to meet, introduce new procedures and consider pertinent programs to support the new year.

Schedule of Food Pantry Focus Donations for 2024

February – Soups! You may or may not be a Super Bowl fan, but hopefully you will take part in our Souper Bowl. During the month of February, show you care by bringing soup to church so we can fill many empty bowls with nourishing soup from our pantry. Whatever type of soup you like, so will someone else. Consider soups that have multiple uses such as Cream of Mushroom, Chicken or Celery as well as vegetarian and low sodium choices.

March – Eggs! Easter is early this year and eggs will be a great asset to the pantry for nutritious food and fun!

April – Feminine & Personal Care Items! Hygiene is vital to feeling good! Consider what Personal Care supplies you'd have a hard time without – maybe others would benefit from the same.

May – Baking Supplies! Let's help stock the pantry with baking basics, packaged mixes and spices.

June – Fruit! Canned fruit, dried fruit, raisins, and fruit cups are pantry favorites.

July – Peanut Butter and Jelly! There are many types of peanut butter and jelly, and no matter the flavor, or if it's crunchy or smooth, these goodies are first off the shelf!

August – Condiments! Ketchup, mustard, relish, mayonnaise, oil, soy sauce, vinegar, salad dressing ... the list is as expansive as the dishes you serve.

September – Canned Meats! Sardines, Mackerel, SPAM, ham, chicken breast, Tuna, sausages, just to name a few – these provide necessary protein and omega three nutrients.

October – Cleaning Supplies! Things that spray, sprinkle, wipe or otherwise provide a cleaning usage are what we need this month. Although not usually considered a 'cleaning product' Toilet Paper is always appreciated 😊!

November – Thanksgiving Foods! The traditional meal foods are requested: Canned green beans, fried onion toppings, gravy, stuffing, cranberry sauce, olives, potatoes, yams and pumpkin.

December – Beverages! Juices, shelf stable milk products, coffee, tea or packets to mix with water. This time of year we all need a little more liquid in our systems to keep us running efficiently. Please do not bring in juice products that contain less than 100% juice 😊

A REFLECTION by Ellen Bradley

“Look, it’s still light out!” is a common excited observance heard around 5 - 6 p.m. at this time of year, as someone comes out of a store or gets out of work. For the sun, which seemed so feeble and weak up until the winter solstice, even shrouding us in complete darkness at 4:30 p.m., has been increasing in strength for several weeks now. Although it’s barely noticeable on a day to day basis, the daylight has been extended little by little, and we receive the happy cosmic gift of a bit more time until darkness, and the mornings seem brighter. For all of earth’s creatures, nothing is so fundamental as the length of daylight. After all, the sun is the ultimate source of all light and warmth on earth and controls much of what we do and even our psychological reaction to our world around us. No wonder the longer days bring so much happiness!

I can always tell that the days are getting longer by the pattern of the sun beginning to ease into the window when I first wake up. It’s now different than it was a few short months ago, when my alarm would jolt me from a deep sleep in utter darkness, and it would feel like it was the middle of the night although the clock would say 7:00 a.m. And the morning light now shining in helps me to wake up naturally, often even before the alarm, and allows me to begin the day in a much more peaceful way than the panic that a loud alarm can bring!

In ancient times, fire, of course, was totally depended upon especially during the long, dark, and cold months of winter. Someone had to get up regularly all night long to keep the home fire burning, or it would be a cold awakening and frozen water in the washbowl if it went out, and a long wait for warmth. There was an inextinguishable fire at St. Brigid’s monastery in Kildare which burned for 500 years, providing warmth and light especially during the dark times when it was needed most. February 1 is St. Brigid’s Day, and she is remembered not just for the miracles she performed but also for tending that fire. The date was also a symbol of the halfway point between winter and spring, much as we celebrate our current Groundhog Day. So in ancient times too, they speculated on the farness or nearness of spring!

But this halfway point is celebrated in another way for me. The real excitement is when, nestled in our mailbox, the first seed catalog arrives. I carry it inside, careful and protected in my arms like an unexpected check, and bring it to a cozy spot to enjoy and begin thinking about my garden!

All of these things point to the fact that we've crossed the hump and are on the downward stretch of winter. It's normal to feel a bit weary or depleted by now, after the excitement of the holidays is over and we've had so much bitterly cold weather. But why does it seem we are always just waiting for the next season? Why not enfold the specific beauty of February, and what it gifts to us, such as a time of pause and rejuvenation? It is a time to celebrate Valentine's Day, and love in all its glorious forms. It is a time to enjoy the beauty of winter in New England whether we like to be outside in it, or inside looking out at it. It is for cooking, reading, art, and the quietness after a fresh snowfall. So, as we must coexist with winter for as long as it decides to stay, regardless of whether the groundhog sees its shadow or not, let us appreciate the goodness of today while we welcome each shift in seasons fully to become closer to the rhythms of the earth and the richness of life. Amen.
