“Seeking Honest Questions for Deeper Faith”

STORRS CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, UCC

10am, March 26, 2023

Welcome to the Storrs Congregational Church, United Church of Christ!

As we say at nearly every worship service, “No matter who you are, or where you are on life’s journey God welcomes you... and so do we.”

We take these words seriously. We strive to be a community as diverse and hospitable as God’s kingdom. We don’t all look or act alike; God knows we don’t all think alike. We don’t all read the Bible the same way. We come from different religious backgrounds, we bring different questions, and we carry different burdens. But every Sunday, we gather as the Body of Christ.

In this grand old church, we do Sunday morning in some pretty traditional ways. We study the teachings and the actions of Jesus. We gather around the waters of grace and the feast table of Christ. Some of the songs we sing are ones our grandparents might also have sung in their day. Yet, in our preaching and prayers, we wrestle with the challenges of everyday living. We hope your heart will hear something personal and relevant this morning—a word of comfort, a spur to action, a call to a deeper relationship with God.

Mission statement of the Storrs Congregational Church:

We share in God’s love by growing in faith, courageously seeking justice, and generously caring for all people.

These May Help During the Service... If you would like a large-print copy of the bulletin and hymns, would like seat or back cushions, or are looking for a wheelchair or accessible seating, please ask an usher. The restroom in this building is at the front of the church behind the doors to the right of the chancel (in the northeast corner of the building).

Children, too, are welcome at all services. It is important for families to worship together. We are glad to have children—and all their wiggles, giggles, and squiggles—as part of our community and worship life! Families are welcome to visit our PRAYGROUND toward the front pews, on the right side of the meeting house. There are books and quiet activities available for little ones. Whenever worship is blessed with the presence of children, the liturgy will include a “Time for All God’s Children”. Welcome!

The Sacrament of Holy Communion: All are welcome, including children, to share in the feast at Christ’s table. Communion is shared the first Sunday of each month.

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism: We gladly offer the sign and seal of God’s grace in the waters of baptism, both to children and adults of any age. For more information, contact the pastor.

The language of worship is rich and diverse, and yet always inadequate to express the fullness of the divine. In our worship life, we strive to use inclusive language for humanity and expansive imagery for the divine, while respecting the poetry and imagery of texts handed down to us from the ages. Honoring our diversity, in those places where we speak or sing together, worshippers may use language with which they are comfortable or familiar.

Please stand as you are able “*.”

Please remember to silence cell phones and other devices, and be mindful of those who wish to use the prelude as a time of prayer, meditation, and preparation for worship.
Please know that our services are recorded on Zoom and live-streamed on YouTube.

GATHERING

We are an Open and Affirming, Just Peace church.

No matter who you are or where you are on life’s journey, God welcomes you and so do we.

Call to Worship (responsive)

Duffy Brookes

One: Have you ever felt washed up, brittle, worn-down to the bone?

Many:* Have you ever felt grief lay heavy on your back?

One: Have you ever felt like hope was out of reach?

Many:* Have you ever wondered, can these bones live?

One: If you have, then you are in the right place, for this is God’s house. Hope lives here.

Many:* So, come. Rest your weary bones. Let us worship Holy God. Amen

Hymn — “O Come to Me, You Weary”

this bulletin p. 9

Call to Confession

Friends, there is nothing that we have to keep hidden from God—not our anger, our grief, or the ways in which we have fallen short. In confession, we speak honestly and are met with grace. So let us not hold back. Let us bring our full selves to this prayer, knowing that God is already running to meet us. Let us pray:

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Jesus of Nazareth,

We confess: we forget that you know this feeling.

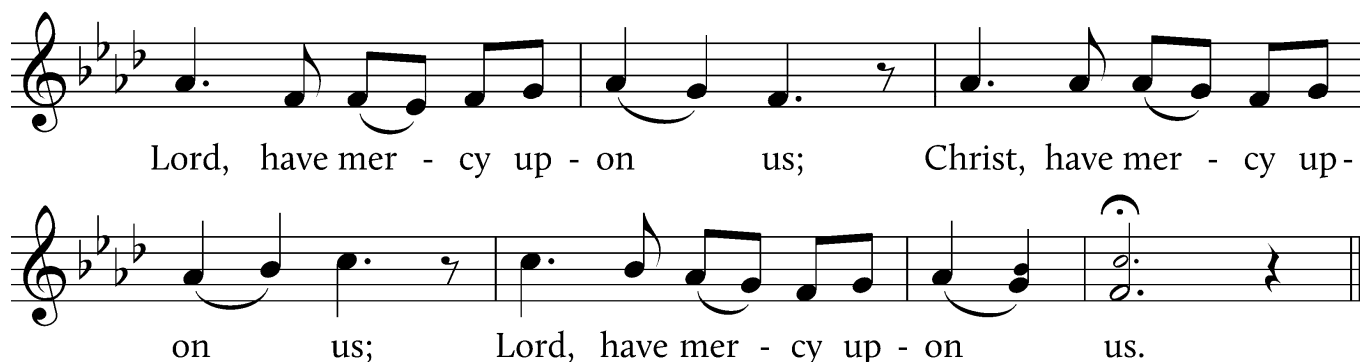

We forget that you, too, have wept.

We forget that you, too, have lost.

We forget that you, too, have gathered at the tomb, have grieved for a friend, have felt the sting of humanity.

Forgive us for the times we place blame on you, for the ways we create distance, imagining that you could never feel what we feel. Forgive us for allowing the valley of dry bones to be a sea of space between us. Pour yourself into the cracks in our hearts.
Bring these bones back to life. Bring us closer to you. With gratitude we pray, amen.

PRAYER FOR MERCY: KYRIE

Words of Forgiveness

One: Friends, you could spend your whole life ignoring God, pushing God away, or trying to solve the world's problems all on your own, and God would still love you all the same. Even in our shortcomings, we are God's beloved. So join me as we hear and believe this good news:

Many: We are saved by grace through faith. We belong to God. We are not alone. Amen!

When worship is blessed with the presence of children, the liturgy will include
'Time for All God's Children'

WORD

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song

Anthem — "Prayer" from Nightsongs by H. Leslie Adams

Sarah Marze, soloist

I ask you this:
Which way to go?
I ask you this:
Which sin to bear?
Which crown to put
Upon my hair?
I do not know,
Lord God,
I do not know.

Text: Langston Hughes (1901-1967)

Prayer of Illumination

Creator God,
Why is bad news so loud?
In the midst of gun violence, hunger, melting ice caps,
and anxiety, it often feels like suffering has a microphone.
How do we hear you? How do we find you?
How do we know that these bones can live?
Today we bring our raw selves into this space asking that once more you would rush through this room like a mighty wind.

 Remind us that these bones can live.
 Speak to us in your still, small voice and let it be loud enough to speak to the sorrow of the day.
 We know that good news rests in you, and we know that you are here.
 So help us listen, not to the bad news of the day alone,
 but to the hope that you breathe into every word.
 With open hearts we pray, amen.

RESPONSE

We begin our lives of responding to the gospel in prayer and offering

Responding with our Gifts

As the morning offering is collected, prayers of either joy or concern may be written on the purple prayer request cards found in the pew rack and placed in the offering plates as they are passed.

Call to Offering

OFFERTORY MUSIC — “Out of the Deep” from Requiem by Rutter

*Adult Choir
Vivian Hudson, cello*

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord:
Lord, hear my voice
O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint
If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?
For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared
I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him:
In his word is my trust
My soul fleeth unto the Lord:
Before the morning watch
I say, before the morning watch
O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy:
And with him is plenteous redemption
And he shall redeem Israel: from all his sins.
Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord:
Lord, hear my voice.

PRESENTING OUR GIFTS:

*Embodying the more-simplified mood of Lent, there is no Song of Praise (Doxology).
As you are able, in body or in spirit, please rise when invited as the offering is brought forward.*

Prayer of Dedication (unison)

Holy God,
May this offering remind us of your enlivening Spirit, helping us to share in your love by growing in faith, courageously seeking justice, and generously caring for all people.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

Pastoral Prayer, ending with The Lord's Prayer

Many: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and glory forever. Amen.

Invitation and Sentences of Scripture

Profession of Faith

*Affirmation of Faith (unison)

You, O God, are supreme and holy.
You create our world and give us life.
Your purpose overarches everything we do.
You have always been with us. You are God.
You, O God, are infinitely generous,
good beyond all measure.
You came to us before we came to you.
You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ,
Who lived and died and rose again.
You are with us now. You are God.
You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death. You are our God. We worship you.

* Covenanting with this Congregation

Leader (to joining members)

+ Do you promise to participate in the life and mission of this family of God's people, sharing regularly in our worship of God and enlisting in the work of our local church as it serves this community and the world? "We do."

Leader (to the congregation):

+ Friends, do we, as people of Storrs Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, covenant with our siblings in Christ as part of our family of faith, and promise to encourage, support, and walk alongside them as we together seek to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ?

Congregation: We do.

Leader: Having affirmed the faith of our baptism, now let us all unite in affirming the covenant that binds us together as this particular congregation of God's people:

All: We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in the Holy Scriptures, and in our purpose to walk in the ways of the Lord, made known or to be made known to us. We hold it to be the mission of the Church of Christ to proclaim the gospel to all people, exalting the worship of the one true God and laboring for the progress of knowledge, the promotion of justice, the reign of peace, and the realization of human fellowship. Depending, as did our ancestors, upon the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth, we work and pray for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God; and we look with faith for the triumph of righteousness and the life everlasting.

(the congregation may be seated)

Welcome and Reception

Leader:

Let us, as members and friends of Storrs Congregational Church, UCC, express our welcome and affirm our mutual ministry in Christ, as written in your bulletin.

All:

We welcome you with joy into the common life of this church. We promise you our friendship and prayers as we share the hopes and labors of the church of Jesus Christ. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may we continue to grow together in God's knowledge and love and be witnesses of our risen Savior. Thanks be to God!

Prayer

Leader:

In the name of Jesus Christ, and on behalf of the Storrs Congregational Church of the United Church of Christ, we extend to you the hand of Christian fellowship, warmly welcoming you into the company of our church!

Sharing the Peace of Christ

Breathe on Me, Breath of God

292

Edwin Hatch, 1886; alt.

The musical score is written for a four-part vocal choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in the key of B-flat major (two flats) and 3/4 time. The score consists of two systems. The first system contains the first four lines of the lyrics, and the second system contains the remaining four lines. The piano accompaniment is written in the bass clef, featuring a simple harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The vocal parts are written in the treble clef, with each part having its own line of music. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves, with line numbers 1 through 4 indicating the start of each line of the first system.

Name tags are available for everyone, even guests and visitors at the Greeter's stand in the Narthex. Please be sure to wear your Name Tag over to the Fellowship time to continue our ongoing ministry of Hospitality during the Potluck luncheon. If your permanent name tag is lost, misplaced or you just want another one, contact Deborah in the office for assistance.

Our New Members... Diane Peterson Seaborn and Eric Seaborn moved to Storrs from Wellesley MA in August 2022. Shortly afterwards, Rev. Diane began serving as SCC's Senior Minister! If you haven't gotten to know Eric yet, Diane describes him as "her rock: a gentle giant, a great mind and a wonderful laugh." Eric works as an arborist and as Director of Natural Resources for the Massachusetts DCR agency. Diane and Eric are proud parents to Graham (23), Grace (21) and Rudy (18), their three wonderful kids. The youngest and hairiest child, however, is 6 year old Leo, the family's beloved Australian Labradoodle! Diane and Eric love exploring hiking trails, state parks, and new bookstores. They join SCC today with grateful hearts for the warm welcome of this congregation!

CT Foodshare Walk Against Hunger:

Jan Hoyle has registered our pantry for the CT Foodshare Walk against Hunger scheduled for May 20th, 2023 at Dunkin Park in Hartford. Our Pantry will receive 100% of what we raise through donations. Registrations and donations are most easily completed online at www.ctfoodsharewalk.org. If you’d rather send your donation through the church, make checks payable to “SCC” with “Walk For Hunger” in the memo line. Donations will be accepted until May 20th.

Easter Lilies available for purchase: While it is true that the time for ordering Easter plants is passed, we still have Easter lilies available for purchase. If you are interested, the plants are $19.80 each and can be taken home following worship on Easter Sunday. If you would like to include an intention for plant in the Easter bulletin, email the office at sccoffice@storrsconchurch.org by Thursday April 6th to ensure that the intention is printed.

Pray...

Let us pray ...

- Rev. Mike Ader as he continues to heal from hip replacement surgery.
- Joyful prayers of thanksgiving for the Browns as they celebrated their 70th anniversary
- We welcome Patrick back to our SCC community and will celebrate with a Potluck meal directly following worship. Please join us!
- In thanksgiving for Jim's successful surgery and for a good recovery with strength and perseverance.

Dear God, thank you for hearing our prayers this week; these, and the needs that remain unspoken, but in our hearts.

As we journey into the fifth week of Lent we wait and wonder, we lament and fret. We know of loved ones who are sick, injured, grieving, struggling. Let your light shine through our broken places, putting the pieces back together again and as you raised Lazarus from the dead let us put our complete faith in your restorative powers and rest in the knowledge that in your perfect timing, all will be healed.

We envision our community as a welcoming, historic, and progressive Christian community. We are an Open and Affirming congregation: Believing that each of us is unique and blessed with special talents from God, each a creation of God's love, alike and yet different, we open our doors and our ministry to all. We accept into full participation in the life of this Church: people of any age, economic status, gender, marital status, race, sexual orientation, and physical, emotional and mental capability. As a community, we will work to put aside all prejudices and to affirm and promote the worth and dignity of each person.
