

CAREER SPECIALIST SPOTLIGHT

MARCY PIASECKI

Military Spouse Jobs and VetJobs are excited to highlight one of our outstanding Career Specialists, Marcy Piasecki!

Marcy began her journey with Military Spouse Jobs and VetJobs two years ago as a Hiring Our Heroes Fellow. Following the successful completion of her fellowship, she joined our Client Services team as a full-time Career Specialist, where she has continued to make a meaningful impact.

With a strong background in career coaching and as a Gallup-Certified Strengths Coach, Marcy is passionate about helping job seekers recognize their unique talents and confidently pursue their career goals. As a military spouse herself, she brings a genuine understanding of the military community, along with warmth, compassion, and encouragement to every interaction.

Thank you, Marcy, for your unwavering dedication to our mission and for making a positive difference in the lives of the military-affiliated job seekers we are honored to serve. We're grateful to have you on the team!

