GIRLS SOCCER CLINIC

"16 years ago Bethesda Soccer Club took its girls soccer program to the highest level by advertising in the newspaper for a special U7 girls team that would compete at the top levels across the country. 200 players with their families showed up at the Stone Ridge Gym that first year of tryouts and, by the time we had graduated high school 11 years later, we had won almost every tournament across the country and beaten every national champion at some point. We were ranked as high as 5th in the nation in the top division of the ECNL our junior year before going to college and we still hold the record as the team who was recruited by the highest ranked colleges. 2 of us attended Princeton, 1 attended Harvard, 1 attended Yale, 1 attended Brown, 1 attended Stanford, 1 attended Georgetown, 1 attended Villanova, 1 attended Virginia Tech, 1 attended Northeastern, 1 attended Bowdoin, 2 attended Maryland and 1 attended Miami.

Bethesda Soccer Club provided my teammates and me an amazing scholar athlete foundation as our coaches, managers and BSCs Board not only expected us to play the best soccer, but also put forth our best effort with our studies. This BSC inspired foundation served me well at Princeton as I broke most of the scoring records and continued on the same level of excellence with my studies which included my senior thesis, Exercising Their Equality: Coeducation and Athletics at Princeton University After 1969.

Because of Bethesda Soccer Club's leadership, I was able to be drafted to play professional soccer during my senior year at Princeton and helped my team win the professional women's soccer national championship four short months after graduation. Bethesda Soccer Club has done so much for my teammates and me, I feel an obligation to impart the mindset, soccer skills and training techniques, recovery and nutritional methods and study routines that made us so successful to the next generation of Bethesda Soccer Club players." – Tyler Lussi
