SANFORD, Fla. -- Dozens of the nation's top soccer clubs are ringing in the new year in a Sunshine State showcase.

The first two days of the ECNL U16-U18/19 national event in Florida are in the books. Here are some players who shined on Friday and Saturday.

Any performances we missed? Please email rankings@topdrawersoccer.com and let us know.

F Claudia Dipasupil, Match Fit Academy U18/19 -- The forward was involved in both her team's goals thus far, each coming off set pieces. She scored on Friday and delivered a corner which skipped to the waiting foot of Ava Dziadzio for a tap-in on Saturday.

F Jameese Joseph, Bethesda SC U18/19 -- The three-star forward tormented Florida Krush with her power and pace, eventually netting a penalty in a 4-1 win.

M Jane Olcott, Bethesda SC U18/19 -- In the same game, the midfielder played the switching ball resulting in Kiersten Yuhas' go-ahead goal and slotted home the fourth on her own.

M Macy Harper, Ohio Elite SA U18/19 -- The Xavier signee showed plenty of composure in roofing a penalty into the top left corner, the opening goal of Saturday's 2-1 victory over Vardar.

F Olivia Pearse, East Meadow SC U16 -- Subbed on for the final 15 minutes on Saturday, Pearse made the most of the opportunity. She netted a hat trick, including a 30-yard chip into the top right corner.

F Kelsey Smith, Maryland United U16 -- The dynamic forward found her way behind Florida Elite's back line and created plenty of chances.

D Alayna Lynchard, Maryland United U16 -- A possession-oriented center back, Lynchard was a presence in the air and slowed down Florida Elite's attack to keep a clean sheet.

F Graceann Murphy, East Meadow SC U18/19 -- The forward struck for two of her club's three first-half goals against Tampa Bay United.

M Maggie Hultquist, Pacific Northwest SC U17 -- Hultquist won a key tackle in midfield, which set Pacific Northwest onto the attack and led to Alyssa Gray's icebreaker in a 4-0 win over Bethesda SC.

M Ashley Nguyen, Pacific Northwest SC U17 -- Regarded as the smallest player on her team, Nguyen controlled the pace of the game and slotted home a penalty on Saturday.

F Aleia Gisolfi-McCready, FC Stars West U17 -- Beating defenders off the dribble at will, Gisolfi-McCready set up FC Stars' first two goals in a 4-0 rout of Eclipse Select SC Solar.

D Emily Roysen, PDA Blue U17 -- The Duke commit turned in another typically strong performance, organizing PDA from the back in a 2-0 win against Ohio Elite.

F Natalie Oliver, Tampa Bay United U18/19 -- Listed as a defender in American University's signing class, Oliver touched home the winner with 3 minutes left as Tampa Bay United rallied for a 4-3 win over East Meadow after trailing by a pair of goals at halftime.

M Makeda Clements, Seattle United U16 -- Placed into an attacking role on Saturday against Orlando City, Clements flashed with a decisive first touch and a nearly 30-yard strike into the side netting.

M Elle Jones, Seattle United U16 -- Jones got Seattle United started on the right foot with a goal Friday and added a big defensive effort the following day, displaying a tireless work rate.

F/M Michaela Clark, Loudoun Soccer U18/19 -- Clark tracked down Sophia Roche's through ball, poked it past Jacksonville Armada's keeper and coolly finished into an open net. That first-half goal salvaged a 1-1 draw for Loudoun.

GK Megan Hessel, Albion Hurricanes U17 -- AHFC came away with a 0-0 draw against McLean, largely due to a pair of sparkling saves from its keeper. Hessel dove to stop Isabella Unrath's free kick from the edge of the penalty area and denied Lauren Flynn moments later on a near-breakaway.
