

The Choral Institute at the University of the South June 4-11, 2017, Sewanee, TN

- The Choral Institute is an opportunity for students to learn new music, meet new friends and share their love of music and choral singing!
 - Immerse yourself in a week of music on the mountain!

(The University Choir at The University of the South singing Lessons and Carols)

There are many unique opportunities for students at the Choral Institute including the following:

- 1) Daily choral rehearsals in the choir room and Saint Luke's Chapel.
- 2) Enrichment activities with faculty from the department of music in history and theory.

- 3) Leading the music for the Eucharist service at All Saints' Chapel.
- 4) Private instruction available throughout the week. Voice and piano!
- 5) Learn about and play the Casavant pipe organ in All Saints' Chapel.
- 6) Tour and experience the carillon that sits above the Chapel in Shapard tower.

- 7) Explore the 13,000 acres on the domain. Daily walks and hiking!
- 8) Computer and library services are available to all participants.
 - 9) Listen to music at the Ralston Listening Room – one of the best places to listen to music in the country!
- 10) Tour the School of Theology and Chapel of the Apostles!
- 11) Movie night at the Student Union Theatre!
- 12) Recreational activities at the Fowler Center – swimming, rock climbing wall, squash and racquetball courts and fitness rooms.

- 13) Live in campus housing and eat at the fabulous campus dining hall!
 - 14) Talent show at the pit – share your talents with 40 of your friends!
- If you know a high school student (rising sophomore through rising senior) who loves to sing and who would love to experience a week at Sewanee please share this information.
 - The all-inclusive tuition for The Choral Institute is $895.00. Scholarships are available.

For more information contact:
<http://www.sewanee.edu/university-choir/choral-institute/>
Dr. Geoffrey Harris Ward ghward@sewanee.edu
(901) 351-8540 (cell)