LIMITED SUBMISSION
National Endowment for the Humanities

Summer Stipends

Deadlines

FAU internal deadline: Aug. 30
External deadline: Sept. 27
Limit: 2 per institution

The National Endowment for the Humanities is granting summer stipends to support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both. Eligible projects usually result in articles, monographs, books, digital materials and publications, archaeological site reports, translations, or editions. Projects must not result solely in the collection of data; instead they must also incorporate analysis and interpretation.

Applicants interested in being nominated should have their Research Dean email the candidate's name and a brief paragraph outlining the significance of the proposed project to limited@fau.edu by August 30. If by this date more than the allowed limits are interested in submitting a proposal, an internal competition will be held. If an internal competition is not warranted, those that demonstrated interest will be designated and their proposals will be submitted for FAU.

For more information on the internal limited submissions process, click here.

To read the RFP, click here.

###