

2019 KEA Award of Excellence

The KEA Award of Excellence is presented annually to a member or members who have distinguished themselves by the quality of their service to educators through the organized profession.

Minimum Standards:

1. Five years' service in KEA as a commission or committee member, building representative, executive board member, officer, or WEA or NEA delegate. Service in a paid capacity shall not count toward the five years.
2. Dedicated service to KEA above and beyond the responsibilities of the position or office held.

To avoid a duplication of efforts, the current members who have received the award in the past 5 years are listed below:

2018- Elaine Posey
2017- Christie Padilla
2016- Theresa Turner
2015- Tim Martin
2014- Margie Heagerty
