Debbie Irwin was born and raised in Nashville, Tennessee and attended Freed Hardeman. She was married to Travis Irwin for 49 years, until his passing three years ago. Debbie's husband was a minister for 50 years. They lived in Ohio for 30 years where he preached in Akron, Cadiz, and Ashland. He also ministered in Brushy and Athens, Tennessee. Debbie retired in 2020 from the Edward Jones investment firm. She has taught Bible classes from the time she was in junior high school, all ages from nursery to ladies. Debbie currently teaches the 4th and 5th grade class on Sunday mornings and is also one of the ministry leaders and a facilitator for Grief Share at her home congregation, North Boulevard Church of Christ, in Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

*And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?" Jesus answered, "The most important is this: Hear O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love your God with all you heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength." Mark 12:28-30

Our program is best suited for adult women and girls 12 and older. We are sorry that we are unable to provide childcare. Please reserve your place with us and confirm if you will be staying for lunch by August 11 in one of these three ways:
